

THE ANNUAL scramble for Easter Eggs will take place at 11 a.m. on Saturday as the Daly City Easter Egg Hunts, sponsored by the Department of Recreation, will take place at eight playground locations throughout the city. Youngsters — toddlers through the 4th Grade may hunt at any one of the following school or park playgrounds: Abraham Lincoln, Skyline, Midway, George Washington, Colma, F. D. Roosevelt, Westlake Park, and Marchbanks Park. Prize eggs will also be hidden amongst the regular eggs.

Those discovering these eggs will be awarded an Easter basket full of goodies (pictured above). If the hunts are cancelled because of rain, the candy hen eggs will be distributed on all local playgrounds April 23, at 4 p.m. Additional adult supervision at the hunts is needed. Interested parents and other adults may call the Daly City Recreation Department at 982-5356 to volunteer. (Post Photo)

Vol. 27, No. 16 DELIVERED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING Wednesday, April 18, 1973

VTN Quitting South S.F.

The president of VTN Bay Area Inc., Win Westfall, early yesterday requested the South San Francisco City Council to end a contract under which the engineering firm has operated a number of city departments since July 18.

He cited "obstructions in attempting to perform a professional job for the city under the terms of our contract," Westfall told the councilmen that his firm did not see its objective as "our function to be anyone's whipping boy."

He offered to provide whatever services might be requested by the city manager until a new city engineer is chosen. In order to achieve "an orderly transition," he promised to complete all projects already under way "to preclude the city from being put into a position of having to duplicate efforts and costs."

However, he added, "VTN would be willing to do this only on a time and materials basis since 'we no longer have any desire to function in an administrative capacity, particularly since it is no longer possible to achieve majority support from the council for any action or proposal we might make."

Westfall's announcement came at the tail end of a meeting that lasted past midnight. Councilman Patrick Ahern, the prime mover against VTN, made a motion to seek a city engineer immediately. His ally, William Borba, moved to accept VTN's resignation. With two motions on the floor, things became confused.

Ahern charged that VTN was not acting in a very professional way, by asking for an immediate resignation.

This led into an argument over whether VTN could resign immediately, with Ahern demanding that the contract be checked out.

"I find it amusing," observed Fred Hull, VTN project head for the city of South San Francisco, "that with all our proposals continuously pigeon-holed by study sessions, that we even have to study my own dismissal."

The two tangled motions were finally straightened out, and they were unanimously approved.

The meeting was conducted by Mayor Pro-Tem Warren Steinkamp, Frank Mammini. (Please See Page 2, Column 2)

Decision Came as A Shock

By GEORGE GOLDING

The announcement that Hunters Point Naval Shipyard will be closed next year came as a shock to the 5800 people who work there.

Hunters Point spokesman Vaughn Ferguson said Monday, "We're getting all kinds of calls."

"It is a great shock, to myself as well as all our very loyal and hardworking employees."

Ferguson said Hunter's Point employs 1500 San Mateo County residents among its "highly skilled labor force of machinists, marine electricians, boiler-makers, electricians, and so forth. These people have been trained over the years to do a rather tremendous shipbuilding and repair job here."

Hunter's Point, with 920 acres of shops and ship-fitting facilities, has "one of the very largest dry-docks in the world, plus many different dry-docks that we use in connection with ship repairs."

"I suspect our plant, shops, docks and all, is valued at close to $250,000,000," he said.

Hunters Point's huge staff is almost entirely civilian. In the (Please See Page 2, Column 2)

Hunters Point Closure

Ryan Scores Method of Decision

Congressman Leo Ryan denounced the method by which the decision had been made to close the shipyard, and other military installations about the country, in a press conference held in San Bruno Monday.

"It might have been the right decision," he conceded. "As a taxpayer, I don't want to pay extra to keep unneeded military installations open — unless such action is simply labeled welfare. But I do want to see the reasons for cutting down on these installations."

In spite of the fact that his district has the largest number of Hunters Point employees there had been no consultation with him over closing down the shipyard. In fact, he learned about it from a local newspaper.

He criticized the abruptness of the closing, claiming that phasing out such a major installation should be done over a period of possibly ten years.

"I want to see what provision has been made for those about to retire," he demanded, citing the case of a shipwright in his mid-fifties who has worked there for 25 years, with only five years to go to retirement.

"Where can he go?" Ryan asked.

This is the kind of problem which he wished he had been consulted on before the decision was made to close down Hunter's Point.

Shipyard Closing 'Explained'

By JACK BIK

Navy Capt. George B. Jones, commander of the Hunters Point Naval Shipyard, told a press conference Tuesday that he had been officially informed of the decision to close the shipyard that morning.

Right after being informed, he held a meeting with heads of the various employee groups in the shipyard.

Capt. Jones explained that the decision to close the shipyard was based on the smaller navy and the necessity to realign the shore establishment in the support of that navy.

He said, "It was further required in order that more dollars could be made available to the fleet in support of our ongoing commitments."

When asked about the possibility of closing down some of the overseas bases instead, Capt. Jones replied that the same commitments would require that the Navy retain bases overseas.

He said that he had not been consulted on the closing of the shipyard, but added that he felt sure that his superiors in Washington had been consulted.

He admitted that as a Navy lieutenant at Hunters Point just after World War II, he had taken part in a fight to keep open Hunters Point.

"But it was a whole different world then," he observed.

He expressed doubt that the order to close it — by the end of 1974 — would possibly be rescinded, or that the yard would reopen in the foreseeable future.

Plans are to "moth-ball" the yard, to hold it in readiness for any future emergency except for Dry-Dock 4, the backbone of present work on the Navy's giant carriers. That dock will remain in readiness.

"I presume a crew from another shipyard would be sent in when needed."

The dry dock is reported to be one of the largest in the world.

Carrier work, he said, could still be carried on at Bremerton Shipyard in Puget Sound, submarine work at Mare Island, and other work at Pearl Harbor and Long Beach. These are the bases to which the government is now trying to find jobs for present skilled shipyard personnel.

Attempts also will be made to find jobs in shipyards on the Eastern seaboard, although employees of the Boston Navy Shipyard also will be seeking jobs.

Workers who accept jobs in other Navy shipyards will have their moving expenses paid for, Captain Jones said.

Older workers will be offered early retirement, which is available under relaxed regulations when a "reduction in force" situation holds.

Ironically, the announcement of the closing comes at a time when the shipyard is running at a peak, with two giant aircraft carriers being refitted, including a very complex re-modernization of the Kitty Hawk's flight deck. Some 1500 of the 5800 ci-

5 Enter Not Guilty Pleas in D.C. Killing

Five young men pleaded not guilty on Friday to murder charges.

They appeared in Northern District Court in South San Francisco, also pleading not guilty to charges of assault with a deadly weapon.

Henry John Ontiveros, 19; Mark Williams Garcia, 18; Edwin J. Olmos, Ronald Manuel de La Rosa, 20, and Patrick Alan Maestas, all of San Francisco, were accused of gunning down four Daly City youths, in front of a Daly City home. One victim, Kerry McDowell, a 19-year-old father, died, while the others were critically injured.

Attorneys for the defense moved for a hearing on a motion for an order of discovery, which Judge F. Jose de Larios set for April 18, 2 p.m. The attorneys claim that police are holding back certain information, such as names of witnesses and they hope that the judge, at the coming hearing, will order this information released to them.

Judge de Larios also set April 24, 9 a.m. as the date for a preliminary hearing.

A sixth youth is joined in the same hearing, but he is not charged with murder or assault. Leslie Paul Smith, 20, also of the same Sunnydale Housing Project that the others live in, is charged with being an accessory.

Judge de Larios appointed lawyers for each of the defendants, except Maestas who appeared with his own attorney.

Dump for Free in D.C. Next Week

Beginning April 28, and continuing for nine days — until May 6 — residents of Daly City, Colma, Broadmoor, Garden Village, and Sterling Park will be able to dump all their refuse free of charge. Proof of residency will be required.

Free use of the Daly City Scavenger Company dump is part of the yearly "Clean-up Week" in the Daly City-Colma area. The program is aimed at encouraging residents to rid their homes of potential fire hazards and refuse that might cause accidents.

The National Fire Protection Association, a reliable fire safety information source since 1896, reminds the public each year that one home in the nation is damaged or destroyed every 12 minutes by fires started in rubbish.

The NFPA calls special attention to what it calls the "ABC's of Clean-up" which include attics, basements, and closets. A great deal of household fires originate in these areas.

Rowe's Task: A Solomon-Like Judgment

Daly City Manager David Rowe is going to have to make a Solomon-like recommendation by May 7 as to how to spend $353,106.28 in revenue-sharing funds.

People needs versus creature comforts might be the way to describe the dilemma. It is aggravated by the fact that eight special-interest groups are requesting a total of $1,187,315.

There were some eloquent pleas at a special meeting of the Daly City Council Monday night urging funding for "the human needs," especially of "Old" Daly City.

The Rev. Hosey Spears, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, led off with sharp criticism about the requests of the public works department ($560,500), the fire department ($132,050), the police department ($59,934) and the park and recreation department ($117,000).

"Nobody said too much of the people's needs," said Spears. "I thought that revenue-sharing meant that the people should have something to say about how it was spent."

Spears, along with a number of the audience of nearly 200, was pushing for continued funding of the Guadalupe Health Clinic and the city's Information and Referral Center.

The total funds requested for those projects was: $5,000 for the health clinic and $48,000 (broken down into an option of one-half funding for $16,177 or 100 per cent funding for $32,344) for the Information and Referral Center.

The remaining funds requested were $58,000 by the library trustees and $206,310 by the city manager to continue funding 20 positions under the federal government's (now defunct) Emergency Employment Act.

Spears warned the council that "this is going to be a hot summer, not only in Daly City, but throughout the country — if the (economic) policies of the (Nixon) administration are carried out."

How to Spend The Revenue Sharing Funds

All Toles, representing the Black Affirmative Action Committee in support of the clinic and referral center, said "I'm appalled to hear these various programs the city has been presenting."

"Only two proposals are really geared to helping the community people in general. I feel the referral center is the only place that has had a large impact on a large number of individuals. And he clinic is the only clinic that seems to offer a place to go for those in need of free medical assistance."

Henry Evans, chairman of the board of the referral center, said that the money being requested for these two programs "is only a pittance compared to that necessary to attack the kinds of problems that face us here today."

S.S.F. Youths Arrested In Arson Try

Arrests of three youths on charges of arson were announced Tuesday by South San Francisco fire and police departments.

They were charged in the $50,000 fire at Parkway Junior High School Sunday that destroyed the vice principal's office and heavily damaged other administrative offices.

One youth, Edward Lewis Curtis, 18, 733 Third Lane, South San Francisco, was due to be (Please See Page 2, Column 7)

Moretti Talk At Demo Fete

Assembly Speaker Bob Moretti will highlight the biennial "Democrat of the Year" Dinner on Friday, April 27, according to James Madison or Menlo Park, general dinner chairman. The event, to be held at the San Francisco Airport Hilton Inn, will honor Democratic volunteers who worked in the various Democratic campaigns of 1972.

Moretti was elected Assembly Speaker in January 1971, after being instrumental in 1970 election victories.

Moretti was the third first-time legislator in the 20th century to be elected to the important Assembly Rules Committee, and the first freshman in history to be named chairman of the Finance and Insurance Committee.

The public is invited, Madison said, and tickets are available. A no-host cocktail party will be held at 7 p.m. and dinner at 8.

Narcotics Blamed for Bruno Death

The County coroner's office has listed the cause of death of Larry Poncia, 22, of San Bruno, as an apparent drug overdose. Toxicological tests will be made, however.

Poncia, who was described as a sometime resident at 478 Milton Avenue, the home of his sister and brother-in-law, was found apparently unconscious in a car in front of that residence Monday morning.

Police said the brother-in-law, Raymond Perez, had left the house at about 9 a.m. for work and discovered Poncia in the car.

According to police, Perez attempted to awaken Poncia. Failing, he applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. An ambulance was called.

Poncia, according to hospital authorities, was dead on arrival at Peninsula Hospital a short time later.

Police said Poncia had a record of involvement with narcotics.

More About VTN Quits

mayor for the past year, began the meeting by offering his resignation, citing his belief, expressed "well over a year ago," that the post of mayor should be limited to one year and should be rotated. It was now the turn of Warren Steinkamp, who has served as vice mayor for the past year, Mammini declared.

Borba and Ahern insisted that they await election of the fifth councilman next month.

Mammini nominated Steinkamp as next mayor, and Ahern accused him of "pulling a fast political ploy," adding that "I was beginning to think Warren should get it... but now!"

After waiting for a few minutes for a second, Steinkamp, who was presiding, said, "This is irregular, but I'll second it." The motion lost by a 2-1 vote; Steinkamp did not vote. Thus, Steinkamp apparently will remain mayor pro-tem of South San Francisco until after the coming election to choose a successor to Gordon Bobbitt, who was killed.

The running battle between the two evenly divided factions continued through the five-hour meeting to the unexpected resignation of VTN.

Win Westfall's statement to the council claimed that the city came to VTN, and his firm was asked to make a presentation to the city council to establish a consulting firm as the city engineer and administrative head of a new department — the Department of Ecological Development.

After a four-month study, the city council accepted his proposal by the 5-0 vote.

However, almost from the first day the contract went into effect, he said, both it and VTN's operations have been attacked from a number of directions, including some of the councilmen who originally voted for the arrangement.

He replied to many of the criticisms his firm endured. His first problem involved disbanding the city's engineering division. He said he offered all the city-employed engineers jobs in his firm. He denied harassing city employees.

"Not a single person has been transferred out of his division. There have been no pay cuts nor any recommendations for pay cuts. On the other hand, salary increases were recommended for eight salary classifications. An assistant superintendent of public works was hired from within the ranks."

As for the 40-plus employees "who are continually quoted as having left city employ since VTN came on, it seems to me the council would be doing a considerable service to provide a detailed breakdown as to how many... left as a matter of retirement, to accept other jobs, to get married, those who died, those who moved out of the area."

However, he expressed doubt if this will ever be done.

"There are those on the council who have made it patently clear that it is their objective to discredit VTN... through any means possible."

He cited annual savings to the city of close to $600,000, but concluded that "regardless of how well VTN performs on behalf of the City of South San Francisco, there are those members of the city council who simply do not want us around for one reason or another."

5600 people working there, only 100 are military.

Ferguson said 2300 of them are residents of San Francisco County, 1500 live in San Mateo, 800 reside in Alameda County, 300 in Contra Costa, 250 in Santa Clara, and 150 in Marin.

"The remainder live as far away as Santa Rosa and Morgan Hill," he said.

"What I think is real important, is that we are probably the best integrated of all the federal agencies that I know of, with about 41 per cent minority population."

Two huge carriers, the Kitty Hawk and the Midway, are in Hunters Point now, for servicing.

"We have specialized in repair and overhaul and conversion work," said Ferguson, "primarily on the big carriers because we have very deep water."

Park 'n Fly Wins Bus Service Round

Park 'n Fly, Inc., and Anza Parking Corporation have won the first round in a legal battle with the City and County of San Francisco over an airport commission attempt to halt courtesy bus service to San Francisco International Airport.

U. S. District Court Judge George B. Harris ordered the commission not to interfere with Park 'n Fly and Anza vehicles pending a further hearing on May 1.

Park 'n Fly operates a 1200-car parking facility north of the airport in South San Francisco and provides free courtesy bus service to and from the airport for its patrons on a 24-hour a day basis. Anza Parking Corporation operates a similar service south of the airport, in Burlingame.

Last month the airport commission sought to levy a charge amounting to 10 per cent of the gross revenues of the two parking firms for the privilege of providing courtesy bus service.

"The commission's decision amounted to an execution order against us," said Theodore P. Deslogde Jr., president of Park 'n Fly.

"We have been singled out among all the operators of courtesy bus service for a confiscatory charge that would literally run us out of business."

"We believe that our firm provides a valuable service to the airport as well as to the traveling public," said Deslogde. "Our firm alone diverts 150,000 cars a year from the airport, greatly reducing traffic congestion in and around the airport property. We are completely privately funded and we do not operate on public property with the exception of use of the roads and freeways."

Park 'n Fly does not sell or promote its services at the airport or use airport facilities. The lawsuit contends that the commission's proposed charge discriminates against parking operators in favor of other operators of courtesy vehicles.

"We would not object to a reasonable charge, levied against all operators of courtesy vehicles," said Deslogde. "But the airport commission is making no attempt to apply the same charge to courtesy vehicles operated by car rental firms, hotels, and motels. An exorbitant charge of 10 per cent of our gross income bears no relationship whatsoever to any services provided by the airport. We can only conclude that the commission wants to put us out of business."

Deslogde noted that Park 'n Fly previously offered to pay $15,000 annually as a permit fee for operating at the airport, but that this offer was rejected by the Commission. "We felt our offer was very generous in view of the fact that we receive no services from the airport and, in fact, actually assist the airport by making it more convenient for the public to get to and from the airport."

The suit states that the commission's proposed charge interferes with interstate commerce, arbitrarily discriminates against Park 'n Fly and Anza, violates the due process requirements, and is totally out of proportion to costs incurred by the airport in performance of its regulatory functions.

Pacifican Faces Trial In Homicide

Willie R. Patterson Jr., 29, Pacifica, was held to answer to Superior Court Thursday, on a charge of murder, after a short preliminary hearing in Northern Judicial District Court in South San Francisco yesterday.

He is accused of shooting to death a man visiting his estranged wife in her Fairmont District home in Pacifica. Victim of the slaying was William Moses, 37, a New York postal worker, who had met Mrs. Patterson two days before, while visiting his brother in Daly City.

Testifying for the state were Dr. Peter Alfred Benson and Pacifica police technician William C. Farris. With bail set for $100,000, Patterson will be remaining in jail, awaiting his hearing in Superior Court, set for April 27, at 9 a.m.

Alec's Store Burglary

Broadmoor police are checking a burglary of Alec's Department Store, located in unincorporated Colma off of Junipero Serra Boulevard, which appears at press time to have resulted in a major loss.

The exact nature of the loss will not be known until the various department managers have been able to check out their stock today, according to Police Chief Ray Savage.

The burglary was discovered at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday by an officer who found a side door open.

Officers believe that the burglar had remained after closing hours.

Supervisors Approve Flood Control Pact

County supervisors have authorized negotiations with two engineering firms, Wilsey and Ham, and Kirker-Chapman, to draw up plans for a flood control project in the Colma Creek watershed.

Deputy County Engineer Robert L. Sans predicted it will take one year to develop the plan and another two years to complete construction. Sans said he hoped that construction will begin next spring.

His remarks drew heated criticism from South San Francisco businessmen at the board meeting who said they are victims of periodic flooding of Colma Creek. General Contractor Buzz Haskins said over the years there has been a "lot of petty talk" about flooding conditions alongside the creek but added that "nothing is being done."

Other board members stressed that environmental impact reports must be completed and plans formulated before the project can begin.

By BOB PETERSON
Frank Mammini, South San Francisco mayor for the past year has submitted his resignation.

He presented the council with a two-sentence resignation.

"As is the custom for this city council, an individual councilman is appointed by his peers as mayor for a period of one year," says the first sentence.

"I have served in this capacity for the prescribed period, and it is for this reason that I am tendering my resignation as mayor, yet retaining my membership on the South San Francisco city council."

That's it.

But why?

"I've always believed in the rotation of the mayorship," said Mammini. "And there's at least one person (Warren Steinkamp) who's been a member of this council for five years, and has never been mayor. I think he's well qualified for the job."

Come Monday night, Steinkamp, as mayor pro tem, will have to handle the gavel. What happens next is anybody's guess. Obviously, Mammini favors Steinkamp being named the chairman of the council. It's doubtful that fellow councilmen Pat Ahern and Bill Borba will feel the same way, judging from the infighting and recurring 2-2 vote split of that body.

Mammini, when he accepted the gavel a year ago, did so with some reluctance, saying the excessive demands of his time would keep him from his family and business.

Actually, his first four years in office, neither he nor Steinkamp had any real opportunity to be mayor. It was a position shared during those years almost as a matter of routine by Councilman Pat Ahern and then Councilmen Frank Bertucelli and Andrew Rocca.

In fact, it wasn't until the election that put former Councilman Gordon Boblitt into office, a little over a year ago, that he changed the majority scales to allow "a new face" to wield the gavel.

After that election, in which Boblitt scorched Bertucelli, Mammini, as the top vote getter was the obvious choice for mayor. At that time, he said he would serve the year, and then give up the chair to let someone else have it—presumably Steinkamp.

Steinkamp several times reached the "near-mayorship" pinnacle, only to have to settle for the vice mayor chair.

The most talked about instance was the time then-freshman Councilman Borba was named to the head seat. It was, according to the inner circles at city hall, pretty much understood that Steinkamp would be mayor. Borba himself had promised to support Steinkamp.

Then, the night of the mayor switch, Borba, for a still unexplained reason, changed his mind and took the mayor's post himself.

Colma Recall Petition Is Challenged

A recall petition against Colma City Councilman Raymond D. Ottoboni has been legally challenged, City Clerk Blanche Laromarsino revealed.

She is awaiting a letter from Ottoboni's attorney, she said yesterday, which she expects to receive by Monday. At that time, she plans to check with the League of California Cities and/or the San Mateo County

District Attorney's office for a ruling, on the validity of the petition. The petition had been filed

March 28, charging Ottoboni with nepotism.

Two bandits, one armed with a pistol, robbed the clerk of the Fotomat, 298 El Camino Real, San Bruno, early Wednesday.

No estimate of loss was given.

Police said the men drove up to the drive-through window area, and one of the individuals pointed a gun at clerk Joy Ann Mattson, ordering her to put "all the money" into a paper bag.

The suspects are described as being in their early 20s. One reportedly had light blond hair, the other dark wavy hair, according to the police report.

City Engineer at Pacifica Resigns

Dwight F. French, Pacifica city engineer for the past year and a half, announced his resignation last week.

He will be leaving for Pomona, in Southern California, where he will go to work for Lampman Associates, a private engineering firm that performs various professional services for governmental agencies.

He will thus be returning to the part of the state he came from. He served as director of public works for Baldwin Park before coming to Pacifica.

"It was a very hard decision to make," French said. "I like this area very much, and I enjoy the people I work with very much."

His reason for leaving, he said, was "an opportunity to get into a new endeavor — private industry — to try my skills in a new field with new approaches."

His last day in Pacifica will be May 11.

During the past year, Pacifica has been plagued with resignations of city department heads. French himself served through a difficult period for several months last year, as acting city manager during a period when various resignations left the city without a city manager, assistant finance or assistant engineer. In the midst of it all, record rains caused unprecedented flooding. French, almost single-handedly, guided the city until David Thompson was hired as city manager. French earned high praise for his work.

French's major engineering activity in Pacifica has been overseeing construction of its $6 million sewer plant and 1,000-foot fishing pier-outfall line.

French has been active in many civic affairs, including helping to found the Pacifica Kiwanis Club, and the Y-Indian Guides. He and his wife live on Woodrow Place in Park Pacifica with their three children.

SSF Open Space: Feeling Runs High

Feeling is running high in South San Francisco over the issue of retaining open space.

The city's planning commissioners learned that last week when they heard 2½ hours of testimony over the open space element of the city's General Plan.

One of the major points at issue was the proposed Shoreline Park — a 100-foot-deep strip of park stretching along the bay's edge, from Oyster Point Marina to the W. P. Fuller plant.

Among those arguing against the proposal was Don Bruzone, local manager for Cabot, Cabot & Forbes, which is developing an industrial park on that land, and Arthur "Buzz" Haskins, developer and grader. The park, it was noted, would block his access to the under-water bay lands.

Bruzone felt that the city should confine parks to existing park lands and should not hamper development which would provide more jobs for the economy.

The hearing room, however, was packed with residents who expressed their disapproval of any more building on present open space, and who wanted to preserve the environment.

Transient Arrested In Fotomat Case

An 18-year-old transient has been arrested by San Bruno police and charged with a series of Fotomat robberies in San Bruno and Daly City. He also was booked for car theft, and is wanted for burglary in Daly City, police said.

Meanwhile, Daly City police have booked a 17-year-old for a gas station robbery in that city, and believe he may be a second suspect in the Fotomat incidents.

Booked by San Bruno police was Daniel Lee Martin, who listed his occupation as "unemployed painter." He was transported to county jail, Redwood City. The juvenile was taken to Hillcrest Detention Center, police said.

Although it was a serious act, the robbery and subsequent chase leading to the arrest in San Bruno had some comical aspects to it.

The Fotomat, at 298 El Camino Real, was struck shortly after 3 p.m., a second time in as many days. The day before there were two suspects. Yesterday there was one.

Clerk Joy Ann Mattson, who police said identified Martin, remembers it well. In her statement to police she said, "I looked at his (the robber's) face and thought, oh no, here we go again." She had been on duty and robbed the previous day.

According to Miss Mattson, during the second incident, the robber, from his stolen car, said, "It's nice to see you again. Put it (money) all in a bag. No pennies."

Ironically, San Bruno Detective Jerry Canning, except for the actual hour it happened, predicted the Fotomat would be hit again the second day. He had been studying the methods of operation in the previous incidents.

And, according to the police report, a witness, who apparently considers himself of police officer potential, also anticipated the incident.

This witness stated he saw Martin peeking around a fence as if scouting the area around the Fotomat. "I decided I'd ei-

SSF Schools Check Costs of Vandalism

An anti-vandalism program has scored a resounding success in South San Francisco schools. Trustees received the first semester report on vandalism, indicating it to be far below that for previous years.

The program, as described by District Engineer Stanley J. Haney, is called the "Dollar per ADA" program.

Under it, each school is allocated $1 per "average daily attendance," ranging up to $1,563 for South San Francisco High School. The money is to be used by the students for any particular project they may choose, which would benefit the school. First, however, the cost of any vandalism damage committed must be taken out of the fund.

"Thus we enlisted the students," Haney said, "and with their help, vandalism was kept at a minimum."

A total of $13,444 was allocated from the district's maintenance budget. A total of $3,269 in vandalism damage was done, leaving $10,175 for school projects.

One school, Junipero Serra School in the Serramonte area, reported no vandalism, and will now have its full allocation of $499 to spend. Skyline School suffered only $19 damage, and will receive $507. Buri Buri School, with $35 deducted, will have $782 to spend.

Vandalism throughout the district averaged $154 per school. One school, Foxridge, was hit with $343 in damage, third highest, but with its small enrollment, will get only $60. Other elementary and junior high schools will range from $210 to $782 for projects. El Camino High, with 1,315 students, will receive $1,135, while South San Francisco, with 1,563 students, will have $1,042.

"And it's not costing us a cent," Haney commented. "It's money we would have spent because of vandalism, and now it can be spent to improve the school."

D.C. Woman Dies at 101

Mrs. Marie Otilia Andersen, who was nearing 102 years of age, died Wednesday afternoon at her home at 158 Acton St., Daly City.

She had lived with her daughter Irma and her son-in-law Knud O. Knudsen for 23 years. Mrs. Andersen was born on July 7, 1871, and lived in Denmark until the age of 37. Although coming to America just before the stock market crash, she was able to maintain a going catering business in Brooklyn for many years. She also reared three adopted children.

In addition to her daughter, Irma, she is survived by a second daughter, Clara Hansen of Whittier, and a grandson, Arthur Hansen.

According to Mrs. Knudsen, her mother had never been sick or required an operation in her entire life. She had been bed-ridden for the past six months, however, from the degenerative ailments of old age.

Mrs. Andersen voted in every election, her daughter recalls, including the last one.

Private funeral services were held under direction of Daphne Funeral Home of San Francisco. Interment was held at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

DEATHS

DR. DONALD REES

Dr. Donald Rees, a Daly City dentist, died at his office on April 19. He was 43.

Rees, of 260 Loyola Drive, Millbrae, was a native of Portola. He had lived in this area for 13 years.

He was a member of the California Dental Association, the University of California Alumni Association and the Portola Masons.

He is survived by his wife, Delores; a son, Douglas; two brothers, William and Robert Rees, both of Reno; a sister, Mrs. Kimberly Lowerison of Santa Rosa; his mother, Mrs. Beulah Rees of Reno; and his grandmother.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Crosby-N. Gray Funeral Home in Burlingame.

Interment was on Thursday in Loyaltown.

MARIA FILIPPELLI

Maria P. Filippelli, 412 Spruce Avenue, South San Francisco, died at South San Francisco Kaiser Hospital April 10 at the age of 75.

A native of Italy, she had lived in this county for 51 years. She was a member of the Sons of Italy.

She is survived by one son, Filippo Filippelli of Santa Clara, and two daughters, Sue and Mary Filippelli of South San Francisco, as well as five brothers and sisters in Italy, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at 9 a.m. from Nauman and Lincoln Mortuary in South San Francisco; thence to All Souls Catholic Church for a mass at 9:30 a.m., followed by interment at Holy Cross Cemetery.

INEZ MAY MARTIN

Inez May Martin, 81, mother of June M. Stevens of Millbrae, died in Burlingame April 7.

A native of Canada, Mrs. Martin had lived in this area for one year. Her address was 51 San Antonio Road, Los Altos. She is also survived by two other daughters, Inez A. Dunn of Los Altos and Alice Stiller of Detroit, as well as six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were Wednesday at Chapel of the Highlands, followed by interment at Woodlawn Memorial Park.

MARY M. BOYTER

Mary M. Boyter, 59, 700 Niantic Drive, Foster City, died on April 10 at Mills Pavilion East after a long illness. She was a native of Oak Park, Ill., and had lived here for the past 9 years.

Surviving her are her children, Mrs. Patricia Hourihan, Foster City, Mrs. Virginia Agresti, Daly City and Michael Boyter, Woodside.

She is also survived by a sister, Miss Cecelia Megawich, Oakpark, Ill., as well as five grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted from the Snider and Sullivan Funeral Home at 10:45 a.m., Thursday, thence to St. Gregory's Catholic Church where a requiem mass was celebrated at 11:15 a.m.

4 Arrested In Card Case

A man tried to make a purchase at a Daly City liquor store, using a credit card — and as a result, four men were arrested on a variety of felony charges.

According to Daly City Police, Frank Russano, 32, Seattle, was making the purchase, as the store clerk was checking out the card. Upon finding it stolen, a police officer was summoned. The officer checked out Russano and his three companions, and found that one was carrying a loaded pistol, while another was carrying burglar tools.

Among charges preferred against Russano, Artea Chilton, 28, San Francisco; James Hopkins, 27, San Francisco; and Herther Kinney, 30, are fraudulent use of a credit card, carrying a concealed weapon, receiving stolen property, possession of burglary tools and conspiracy.

Battery Count Jails SSF Man

Michael Louis Wilson, 31, 405 Cypress Avenue, South San Francisco, was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail by Judge Charles Becker of the Northern Judicial District court.

Wilson had been arrested on a forcible rape charge, but that was dropped and he pleaded guilty to battery. He had been accused of attacking an 18-year-old girl whom he had invited to his room.

D.C. Youth Is Arrested

A 20 year old Daly City youth, Daniel Chamorro, 117 San Diego Ave., was arrested over the weekend on a charge of possession of heroin, and sale of heroin.

Police Sgt. Roger Austin and Detective John Kirby reported that they found at Chamorro's home quantities of heroin that were being packaged for sale.

Pacifica Beach Buy Turned Down

Members of the Pacifica City Council reacted with anger at last week's council meeting as they heard a letter from William Penn Mott Jr., director of the State Department of Parks and Recreation, rejecting a plea that the state buy Pacifica's beaches.

Showing the dependence of Pacifica upon the state for dealing with many of its local problems, the council devoted a large portion of the meeting directing letters and resolutions to state officials.

Mott claimed that Pacifica's city-owned beaches lack "many of the characteristics that would make them an attraction of statewide interest. Access to the northernmost beach is not considered good, and at high tide the available beach becomes constricted. The southernmost beach, although good in comparison to other available beaches in the area, is small and perhaps might meet the criteria of a county beach."

He claimed that the responsibility for close-in urban recreation facilities is the responsibility of local government.

"I'd like to point out," Mayor Aubrey Lumley said, "that these are not city-owned but privately owned. There are smaller beaches in this county which are state-owned."

At the suggestion of Councilman Stanley M. Farber, Councilwoman Grace McCarthy agreed to take to the next meeting of the Central Coast Conservation Commission — of which she is vice chairman — a copy of Mott's letter "to show what cooperation we are getting." The Coastal Commission, she added, will be dealing with the future of beaches.

The council decided to continue with their campaign to get the state to finance any programs that it forces the city to undertake, in spite of receipt of a letter from Governor Ronald Reagan, who claimed that SB 90 — which freezes city taxes — does provide for the state to pay for such programs.

An example came up at the meeting in the form of an order from the Regional Water Quality Control Board for Pacifica to start a testing program to insure the purity of the ocean near its sewer plant — at a cost which may run as high as $130,000 a year.

City Engineer Dwight French reported that he protested to the WQC Board that such a program was out of line for a city of Pacifica's size and resources, and was told to set up his own program. He thus set up a proposal which would cost $14,000 the first year and $8,000 a year afterward — but could not be sure that the board would accept this program.

At French's urging, the council approved his program.

City Manager David Thompson presented copies of three letters from state legislators replying to a previous protest from the council against reapportionment plans which would split Pacifica from the rest of the county, and tie it to San Francisco. Only Senator Arlen Gregorio pledged to oppose any bill that splits San Mateo County in such a manner. He is pushing a state constitutional amendment which would require that city boundaries be considered in reapportionment.

The council voted to oppose compelling any student to attend any particular school on account of race, religion, color or national origin. Farber moved that a constitutional convention be called to amend the constitution to that effect. Lumley seconded the motion, and the council voted unanimously on the controversial measure, thus backing a proposal by Assemblyman Floyd L. Wakefield.

"My intent," Farber declared, "is that busing should be only for the purpose of improving education."

All schools should equally be quality schools, he and the other councilmen contended.

VD Course Approved For S.S.F. Schools

South San Francisco Unified School District trustees last week gave unanimous approval to a proposed venereal disease education program.

The trustees had failed to approve the program when first presented by Curriculum Specialist Pat Cannon at a meeting last month. Mindful of protests over a proposed sex education program a few years ago, trustees had held over consideration of the program "for more community input."

Monday night, the board was faced with a large number of letters — all but one in favor of the proposed program.

The program will be added to the present one-week Drug-Special Health Education Program now in its third year. It will be offered in the seventh and tenth grades.

The program will teach children how venereal disease is contracted, diagnosed and treated, and its seriousness. It will also teach how a person who thinks he may have VD may enlist the help of appropriate authorities.

The disease was described by Cannon as assuming near-epidemic conditions in California.

The trustees went into a brief executive session to hear Joseph Cauchi, 709 Hillside Boulevard, describe complaints that he and his group of parents have in regard to Martin Elementary School. The trustees decided to examine the complaints and confer with the teachers. The nature of the complaints was not made public.

Trustees adopted resolutions of commendation for four teachers who are retiring this year with a total of 79 years of service, led by Mary L. Kondila of Sunshine Gardens, who has served for 27 years. Other returning teachers are Marijane C. Baker, Buri Buri School, 24 years; Virginia E. Quinton, El Rancho School, 19 years; and Mentha H. George, Monte Verde School, nine years.

Trustees authorized calling for bids for 12 relocatable classrooms, to be installed in time for this fall's opening of school. Six rooms will be located at Westborough Junior High School, including two rooms to be combined into one for use as a physical education department room. A similar duplex arrangement for P.E. will be installed at Southwood Junior High. Three classrooms will be added to Avalon School and Skyline School, to handle overcrowding in newly developing neighborhoods.

Walther League To Serve Easter Breakfast

The Walther League of Hope Lutheran Church, 55 San Fernando Way, Daly City, will serve a breakfast on Easter Sunday.

The young people invite the community to join in fellowship and worship on this festive day. Breakfast will consist of juice, ham and eggs, cinnamon rolls and hot chocolate and coffee. It will be served continuously from 7 to 11 a.m.

Tickets may be purchased at the door with the proceeds going to finance the activities of the league.

Hope Lutheran Church, 55 San Fernando Way, Daly City, will follow its traditional schedule of services for Holy Week and Easter.

On Maundy Thursday, April 19, a communion service will be held at 7:30 p.m. Twenty-one young people who have completed a year's course of study under the Rev. Armin H. Polster and Mrs. Ray Little will receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper for the first time as junior communicant members.

On Good Friday a service of meditations on the seven last words of Christ from the cross will be held at 1 p.m. At 7:30 p.m. a tenebrae, or service of darkness, will be held with Scripture readings, hymns and special music by the choir. During this service, the lights in the church are gradually dimmed, so that the church is in darkness by the end of the service, and worshippers leave in silence, meditating on the death of Christ.

Two services will be held on Easter Sunday, at 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m., both with Holy Communion. Special films will be shown during the Sunday school hour at 9:45 a.m.

The young people of the church will prepare and serve on Easter breakfast in the parish hall from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m. Hope Lutheran Church extends a warm invitation to members of the community to attend any or all of these services.

HELP WITH EVENT: Mrs. Charles K. Turner, Miss Barbara Holden, Mrs. Murray Freedman.

Dancing, Gaming Party

The Multiple Sclerosis Society will hold its famous M.S. Hob, dining, dancing and gaming party, on Saturday evening, May 5, at Bimbo's San Francisco.

News About...

Cub, Boy Scouts

At the recent Portola District Camporee, Cub Pack 137 received the presidential citation for first place as the best in appearance, attendance and pack spirit.

Dens competed together in several events. Webelos dens I and II tied for second place as the best Webelos dens in all of the Portola District. Each Webelos den took a first place ribbon in one of the several events. Cub dens earned several ribbons also. Pack 137 is sponsored by Bethel Lutheran Church and meets in the Fairmont area of Pacifica.

PACK 259's recent meeting was a "night of Knights" as Den 5 put on a skit showing off their knight's armor, shields, and swords that they had made in their den meetings.

Each knight came up and gave one of the points of honor in the knights Code to show how they used this "code" in the olden days to help the lowly farmers and merchants when they were being oppressed by the Overlords who owned them and their lands.

The flag ceremony was led by the Webelos. Den 2 showed plants potted in glass jugs and bottles that they had done in their den.

"SPORTSMANSHIP was the main product of the annual Girl Scout Sports Day," according to Special Events Chairman Mrs. Barbara Rushton, who was assisted in this city-wide event by Ben Franklin school's Phil Davis, Senior Scouts Karen Kjelgaard and Jane Stewart, and college student Debbie Bridgman.

BROWNIE TROOP 1073, included Laura Hughes, Danielle Bianchi, Laurie Jeppson and Deanna Ramirez, is led by Mrs. Lynn Hughes.

BROWNIE TROOP 717, led by Mesdames Ann Woodlief and Dorothy Aldrich Jr., included Dana Aldrich, Donie Howard, Marva Woodlief, Michelle Komrow and Lorraine Parker.

BROWNIE TROOP 1608, led by Mrs. Vicki Roche, sent Lisa Roche, Sheri Brandt, Christy Beckman, Nina Truch, Diane Gianni, Janet Walters and Linda Thompson to the popular Sports Day competition.

BROWNIE TROOP 15, was represented by Lisa Huff who was with Mrs. Carol Anne Scott.

BROWNIE TROOP 2059, with Mesdames A. Whelan and Gloria Lawrence, sent Stacy Lile, Vanessa Pegueros, Karen Craig, Laura Hansel, Christine Russo, Kim Whelan, Lisa Santos, Cheryl Lawrence and Cindy Turchino.

JUNIOR TROOP 476, sent Roxanne Whelan, GERALYN Ulukou, Chrissie Ulukou, Lisa Braski, Linda Sabol, Vicki Sargent, Carla Russo and Debbie Burke, and is led by Mrs. Joan Stewart.

JUNIOR TROOP 738, led by Mrs. Carol Anne Scott was represented by Sharon Scott and Julie Savignano.

JUNIOR TROOP 194, led by Mrs. Gayle Montalbano, included Cheri Freitas, Sandy Reitas, Tammy Morris, Rosanna Gomez, Sandy Terrell, Melanie Terrell and Carol Parker.

JUNIOR TROOP 2817, led by Mrs. Barbara Rushton, sent Diana Law, Linda Rogers, Michele Rushton and Bridget Leday.

JUNIOR TROOP 214, led by Mrs. A. Lucas, included Chris Vecere. The girls competed in 50 yard, 75 yard, and 100 yard dashes, jumps, softball throws and 2 and 4 person relay races.

GIRL SCOUT LEADER MAGAZINE, April-May issue, contains a story written locally, about the annual Scout Bike Road-E-O scheduled this year for April 28 at two locations. Cadette troop 43 will administer the Bike Road-E-O at George Washington School grounds and 1620 will handle the Lincoln-Edison School grounds contests.

The Leader magazine is sent to every registered adult Girl Scout and is distributed internationally. The Daly City Bike Road-E-O is cited as an example of service to the community and is given a full page spread.

Included is information on the formation of the original project in September of 1967, the help of Daly City's Police Department and Police Explorers, a state-wide auto club which provided some testing materials, and the Jefferson Elementary School District for donating school yard sites.

MUSICIANS from Jefferson, Oceana, Terra Nova, Serramonte and Westmoor High Schools combined Friday night to present the annual Jefferson Union High School District's honor band concert at Skyline College. Howard Loeffler, Westmoor's bandmaster, was this year's director.

Class Leans on Community

By DENNICE REIWEITS
Terra Nova High

Child development is one of the classes offered in the Home Economics Department at Terra Nova.

This class is unique because of its dependence on the community for outside help. Young children are selected from the community to be studied by Terra Nova students. The students bring in their little brothers or sisters and young mothers are invited to loan their children to the Home Economics department for a day.

Every few weeks the Child Development class holds a party for 5-8 year-olds to study the behavior of these youngsters. Through the study of these children, students can learn what to expect when holding a party in the future for their own children.

When playing games the children are certainly interested, but the students seem to be the ones to have the most fun.

One student reports: "The funniest incident was when I was to be leading a march with the kids, and when I looked around, only one child was marching with me."

The students also observe that their classmates are almost as cute as the children. Joanne Getas says, "I thought it was funny when Doralee was sitting in the middle of the floor playing finger games with the little kiddies. She looked like a natural!"

Through all the fun and games the students are learning a valuable lesson how to cope with children they may someday have. They are experiencing what will happen in a real-life situation of the average children's party and will hopefully be able to face any problems they may have.

Library Friends Set Review

A review of "The Waltz Kings," by Hans Fantele, will be given for the Friends of the Daly City Library, April 26 at 10 a.m., by Mrs. Frank W. Hosmer in the Coral Room of the Westlake Library, 275 Southgate Avenue.

Mrs. Hosmer is literary section chairman of the California Club of California and is also affiliated with the Forum Club of California. Mrs. Hosmer will be remembered for her excellent review for the Friends last year when she presented Arthur Haley's "Wheels."

"The Waltz Kings" is a biography of Johann Strauss and his son and depicts the dazzling and romantic era of Vienna. She will also comment on "The Hessian" by Howard Fast, a sociological novel of the American Revolution; "Harry S. Truman" by Margaret Truman; and "Blackberry Winter" by Margaret Mead.

Mrs. Thomas Donohue assisted by Mrs. Anthony Barachiev-ich will hostess a coffee social previous to the book review, and arrangements have been made by Mrs. F. Lincoln Walter, book review chairman for a no-host luncheon in honor of Mrs. Hosmer at the Skyliner Restaurant following.

Youth Fair Plans Made in Pacifica

Spring is in the air and the Pacifica Teen Council and the Parks, Beaches and Recreation Dept. are holding their second annual Spring Youth Fair at Oddstad Park.

The fair from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 5, promises to be one of the most exciting youth events to take place in Pacifica, a spokesman said. Most of the youth clubs and organizations of Pacifica will be displaying and selling items they have made.

All festivities are free to the public.

The next big teen dance is to be May 11 at Sharp Park School. The cost for members is only 75 cents; non members, $1.50. The dance starts at 7 p.m. and ends at 9:30 p.m.

First Aid Class Will Be Offered

Golden Gate Chapter of the Red Cross will offer a Multi-Media Standard First Aid Class April 28 at the Daly City Westlake Park Clubhouse, 149 Lake Merced Boulevard, from 8:30 a.m.—5 p.m.

The Multi-Media course is based on the contents of the regular 10 hour Standard First Aid course, but can be completed in one 8-hour working day.

Pre-registration is advised by calling either the Daly City Recreation, Parks and Maintenance Department at 992-5356 or Golden Gate Chapter-Red Cross at 776-1500, ext. 331.

Students are asked to take lunch, and to dress comfortably in long slacks. Instruction is free, but for workbook and materials, there is a $5 charge.

Camp Fire Friendship Tea

The I Yo Hi Cin Tando group of Camp Fire Girls, led by Mrs. Robert Perruquet, gave a Friendship Tea ceremonial last week as a part of their rank.

Theme of the afternoon was a part of the Firemakers desire, "For I will tend, as my fathers have tended, and my fathers fathers since time began, the fire that is called The love of man for man, the love of man for God."

Girls participating and earning part of their rank were fourth grade Trail Seekers, Karen Bourdon, fifth grade wood gatherers Brigid Saulny, Pamela Jackson and Claudia Soloranzo. Sixth graders working on Fire Maker rank were Pam Perruquet, Jill Sellers, and Naudja Threadgill.

Invited guests were the girl's mothers and grandmothers and the Rev. Peter Ugbamariam. Reverend Ugbamariam told the girls all about Africa as he was born and raised in Ethiopia. The 5th grade girls who were earning their "Woodgatherer" rank by learning about another country, dressed in African attire and served African desserts. The 4th grade and 6th Grade girls presented a puppet show about Camp Fire Girls.

The girls received their honor beads and membership discs. They also presented some African crafts they had made to their mothers.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN School in Daly City will hold its open house April 24. Being held simultaneously with a tour of the school facilities, at 7:30 p.m., is a book fair in the multi-purpose room. Students will get previews of sale selection during school hours, just as the students above, who are (left to right): Julie Nutting, Shelby Daniels, Brian Oxenham and Marisa Matteucci.

Camp Fire Girls 63 Years Old

The Camp Fire Girl program was 63 years old this week. Throughout the Bay Area Camp Fire girls celebrated with national growth campaign, "Each One Bring One." The theme is designed to enlist adult leaders and assistants, as well as introduce the Camp Fire program to prospective youth members.

Golden Gate Council of Camp Fire Girls includes Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo counties. Each of the seven districts within the council commemorated the organizations founding in 1910 with father-daughter dinner and "Each one bring one" birthday parties.

During its 63 year history, Camp Fire has had impact on millions of girls, their families, adult volunteers, and communities. Its goal is to shape the lives of young girls through small group experiences, with camping being a major interest.

The Camp Fire program includes Blue Birds (first, second and third grades), Camp Fire girls (fourth, fifth and sixth grades), Discovery Club (seventh and eighth grades) and Horizon Club (high school age).

Because leaders are badly needed in councils throughout the Bay Area, Camp Fire has issued an appeal for women and men 18 years and older to lend a hand. Leadership training will be provided to all volunteers. Groups are small. In fact, the heart of the Camp Fire program is the small-group experience it offers with careful attention to the special needs, problems and talents of the individual girl.

Camp Fire meetings include games, crafts, group singing, cook outs, trips to interesting places, and so on. Group experiences are as limitless as imagination. Girls get together weekly in homes, schools, and churches and meetings can take place afternoons, evenings, or weekends.

Those interested in easing the crisis and becoming leaders or assistants can find out more by phoning the nearest Camp Fire council headquarters. The phone number for Golden Gate Council is 752-2600. A call from a prospective leader would be the best birthday gift ever.

High: Colleen Mills, Oils, Westmoor High; David Ramirez, Oil, El Camino High; Carrie Jaramillo, Pen and Ink, El Camino High.

Three area high schools participated in this year's show, and individual students from four additional schools participated on their own.

Yvonne Burk will welcome the members of the San Francisco Alumnae chapter of the Alpha Iota sorority to her Daly City apartment this evening.

Mrs. Burk, the president of the chapter, will be hosting the regular business meeting as the chapter prepares for election of new officers and the installation which will be held in June.

DO YOU HAVE some books — hard backed or paper-bound — records or sheet music you would like to donate to a good cause?

The Friends of the Daly City Library will be discussing their upcoming book fair to be held on May 11 and 12 during the next regularly scheduled meeting and book review.

Mrs. Virginia Tierney, publicity chairlady for the group, says collection bins have been established in each branch of the library, while marking of donated items to be sold in the Westlake mall also is underway. Details of the sale will be discussed during the meeting on April 26, following the review of the Waltz Kings by Mrs. Frank Hosmer, chairman of the Literature Department of the California Club.

Also on the April 26 agenda is an evaluation of the success of the Friends of the Library booth at the recent Serramonte spring fair.

Mrs. Marilyn Bagnall was chairman of the booth and of the committee that produced the handmade and individually designed bookmarks and bookworms. Mrs. Verna Teglia was in charge of decorating the booth and selected a springy combination of yellow and apricot shades to carry out the theme, "Books, Butterflies and Daisies."

Among those who worked many hours to produce the bookmarks and bookworms were Mrs. Bagnall, Mrs. Alice Barichievich, Mrs. May Casella, Mrs. Rita Daw, Mrs. Jackie Gilmore, Mrs. Miriam Ericson, Mrs. Kathryn Jovich, Mrs. Margaret Kincaid, Ms. Marie Meyer, Mrs. Lorraine Sandefur, Mrs. Teglia, Mrs. Tierney, Janice Tierney, and Mrs. Leah Reed.

SENIOR GIRL Scouts and Adult scouts from Daly City met from 7:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. one evening last week at the War Memorial building to hear a talk on the new Girl Scout promise and the rewritten version of the law and to attend workshops.

Mrs. Pat Knox was the chairman in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Donna Barnes, director of consultants was the workshop coordinator.

WOULD YOU LIKE to help the Friends Outside with their efforts to establish a mini-park at the San Bruno jail facility operated by the County of San Francisco?

The postage stamp sized park is being designed to provide a place for children to play under the care of volunteer workers while their mothers are visiting within the jail. Funding for the project has not been forthcoming from any private foundations and the public assistance is being sought.

According to Mrs. Rudy Enberg, director of the local chapter of Friends Outside, anyone who would like to make a contribution to help defray the cost of the fence and the divider-planters may send a check, no matter how small, to the Friends Outside office, 3101 Nineteenth ave., San Francisco, and mark it "Minipark." All contributors will receive a sponsor's card as a token of their ongoing concern for the child care program and the work of Friends Outside.

THE SISTERS OF the Holy Infant Jesus, who make up the members of the Faculty of the Holy Angels Parish School, will be the honored guests of the Latin Club at the Spring Afternoon dance being planned for April 29 at 3 p.m.

The organizers of the party are hoping that the members of the Alumni will take advantage of this opportunity to celebrate the conclusion of the school's twentieth year by coming to say a word of appreciation to the sisters and visiting with old friends.

Tickets are now on sale for $1.50 per person and may be obtained by calling Mr. or Mrs. Nemer Gonzales, 992-3591. There will be dancing, games and an abundance of traditional Spanish or Mexican dishes.

ROBERT RICKERT, general chairman of the Our Lady of Mercy Spring Festival, has selected Circus Parade for the theme of the 1973 edition of this annual benefit.

The festival will be held in the parish hall on May 3, 4, 5, and 6 and Ed Cuevas will be in charge of turning the hall into a giant circus arena of booths for food, games and bargains.

Names of the volunteers in the booths have been made public and they include Mrs. Albert Fambrini and Mrs. Victor Sariotti in the sweets booth; Mrs. Richard Galliani and Mrs. James Murray will be selling records and posters; Mrs. John Pappas is in charge of the grab bag and Mrs. Thomas Dally, Mrs. Brian Davenport, Mrs. John Cresalia and Mrs. Jack Sousa will be in the panda booth. Other workers will be Mrs. Robert Cantwell, Mrs. John Macia, Mrs. Edward McEntee, Mrs. Robert Arata, Mrs. Andrew Skirra serving refreshments; Mrs. Sebastian Passanisi, Mrs. Theodore Frankos, Mrs. Donald Tarantino in the linen booth, Mrs. Marijane Modena, Mrs. John Cunnie and Mrs. Robert Rickert in the garden items and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. Donald Osuna and Mrs. Frederick Caracciola will be selling things for the toddler set.

Mrs. Francis Kelly and Mrs. William Arata will work as the floor chairman and the chairman of women's booths.

Mrs. James McCann is doing the publicity for the festival.

'Circus Parade Festival' Scheduled

"TOYS FOR TOTS" is one of 20 booths that will be available for your enjoyment at Our Lady of Mercy's annual festival "Circus Parade". The event will start on May 3 and run through May 6. Taking care of the toys booth are Mrs. James Dougherty, chairman, Mrs. Donald Osuna, Mrs. Frederick Caracciolo co-chairmen. Others are left to right, Danny Caracciolo, Kevin Caracciolo, Michael Dougherty, Donald Osuna, Joey Dougherty and Jenny Dougherty.

Crestmoor Youth Wins Award at Serramonte

At the High School Art Show at Serramonte Center, the first place scholarship and trophy was awarded to Jose P. Haz of Crestmoor High School.

Nell Norton

Good morning, good cooks.

Sunday is Easter and while the younger members of our family may think that anything other than jelly beans and chocolate bunnies is unnecessary, you and I know that dinner time will arrive and there had better be something more substantial than marshmallow eggs on the table.

Most of us have very little trouble deciding on the meat for a holiday dinner, it's the search for a different way of serving vegetables, a salad or a fancy dessert that interests us.

With this in mind, I'd like to share a recipe for a new cocktail to start off the dinner. Instead of the usual shrimp or crab, try an avocado cocktail. My friend Helen Mori gave me this recipe, noting that it has long been a favorite in her family.

AVOCADO COCKTAIL

- 2 cups diced avocado
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1/2 cup chili sauce
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon minced chives
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- 3 slices bacon

Fry the three slices bacon until brown, drain and crumble. Combine the half cup chili sauce, one-fourth cup mayonnaise, one tablespoon minced chives, juice of half lemon. Refrigerate. Just before serving blend the dressing with the one cup celery, and two cups avocado. Place in serving glasses and sprinkle with bacon. Serves 6.

Another friend, Ceil Collin, sent me this recipe. After testing it I decided to hold onto it to share with you good cooks for some special occasion. Easter is a very special day, so here it is.

RITA'S CHEESE TOPPED SPINACH

- 2 6-oz. jars marinated artichokes, drained
- 1 10-oz. pkg. frozen spinach, thawed (and squeezed out)
- 1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons milk
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese

Place the 12 ounces drained marinated artichokes in the bottom of greased 1-quart baking pan. Drain the package spinach and press out the liquid, spread over the artichokes. Blend the 8-ounces cream cheese with the two tablespoons butter and mix in milk. Spread cheese mixture over spinach. Sprinkle top with half cup Parmesan cheese. Cover and bake in 350-degrees for 3 minutes. Remove cover and bake 10 minutes longer. Serves 6 to 8.

NOTE: If you want to extend this recipe, you could use two packages spinach.

And for a very fancy dessert indeed, this Bake-Off winner, a colorful peach cake including pineapple cheese spread which adds a flavorful moistness to the cake. Canned peaches are tucked inside this moist cake and it is brightly painted with red cinnamon candies that melt during baking. A pretty and flavorful combination that is finished with a shiny glaze.

PAINTED PEACH CAKE

- 1 package Yellow, Lemon, Pineapple or White Cake Mix
- 1/2 cup (5-oz. jar) pasteurized Neufchatel pineapple cheese spread or 2 (3-oz. pkgs.) cream cheese
- 5 eggs (about 1 1/4 cups)
- 1 cup (1-lb. can) well-drained sliced peaches
- one-third cup red cinnamon candies

OVEN 350-DEGREES 10-INCH BUNDT OR TUBE PAN

Generously grease and lightly flour 10-inch Bundt or tube pan (Teflon, too).

In large mixer bowl combine one package dry cake mix, 5 oz. cheese spread and five eggs. Blend and beat as directed on package. Spoon two-thirds of batter into prepared pan. Arrange well-drained peach slices over cake batter, not touching sides of pan. Sprinkle one-third cup cinnamon candies over peaches, spoon remaining batter over candies. Bake 350-degrees 35 to 45 minutes until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool upright in pan for 15 minutes; remove from pan. Prepare glaze; drizzle over warm cake.

GLAZE
Combine one-half cup sifted powdered sugar with 1 to 2 tablespoons lemon juice, enough juice to make thin enough to drizzle.

One Way

"The Hand" points to the One Way, through Jesus: John 14:6: "Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through me.'" Sterling pendant and chain, $12.50.

Rites Pending for 2 Pacifica Victims

Two Pacifica residents died of poisoning during the weekend, Pacifica police reported Monday.

Paul H. Smith, 74, 371 Nelson Avenue, was reported to have died from carbon monoxide poisoning. Sharon Hewitt, 28, was reported to have died of an overdose of sleeping pills. Police had few details of the two deaths, however.

According to the office of the San Mateo County coroner, Miss Hewitt's body was found in her van, where she apparently lived, parked in Rockaway Beach, Saturday. Her sister, Ruth Hewitt of Belmont, had been seeking her for three days.

The coroner said that she had left a note saying that she was tired of being a failure and a liability in life.

Services are pending at Crippen and Flynn Chapel in Redwood City. She is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hewitt of Redwood City.

Smith was found by his son, Jay, Saturday night in his car parked in the garage at the Nelson Avenue residence. He was dead on arrival at Mary's Help Hospital. Investigators said blankets had been "tented" over the car to hold in the deadly fumes.

Smith was a member of the Commercial Telegraphers, a retired employee of Western Union and a veteran of World War I and II. A native of Iowa, he had lived in San Mateo County for 23 years.

In addition to his son, he is survived by his widow, Frances. Services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at Nauman & Lincoln's Chapel by the Sea Mortuary. Interment will be private.

Birthday Event Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday will be an especially happy occasion at the South San Francisco home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kirchen. Approximately 75 relatives and close friends will share with them in celebrating their son, Joe's 21st birthday.

Joe is a graduate of El Camino High School and is pursuing a music career.

Also on this special day, Mr. and Mrs. Kirchen will formally announce the engagement of their lovely daughter, Michele, to Paul Navarro, both graduates of El Camino High School.

Michele is a dental assistant in San Francisco and Paul is continuing his studies at Skyline College.

Methodist Services Set

On Good Friday at United Methodist Church in Daly City, there will be a Tenebrae Service at the church at 7:30 p.m. This service dates back to perhaps the 5th Century A.D. As the candles are extinguished, they symbolize the fading loyalty of the followers of Jesus.

It also portrays the fading light of the world as Christ was departing from it. Multi-media effects are also employed to further dramatize the significance of this moment in history.

On Easter morning there will be a service at 10 a.m. and at 11. There will be no Sunday School classes that day, but child care will be provided for pre-schoolers. The church is located at 1474 Southgate Ave.

Cong. B'nai Israel Sets Sabbath Rites

Sabbath Services during the Passover season will be held by Congregation B'nai Israel on April 20 beginning at 8 p.m.

During that service the Congregation, represented by President A. Arthur Hirschhorn, will accept five Torah Mantles presented by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Arbitter and Family.

A Mantle is a cover for the Torah Scroll and are changed for various seasons and Holy Days; the colors used are in keeping with the laws set forth in the Book of Exodus. The Mantles being presented by the Arbitter family are in antique gold and embroidered with Judaic Religious Symbols: The Tree of Life, The Burning Bush, the Menorah, The Sabbath Candelabra, the Wine Cup and bear the Hebrew word for peace, "Shalom." Spiritual leader of the Congregation, Rabbi Sheldon Edwards will dedicate the Mantles; three are in memory of Rabbi Solomon A. Shore, late Rabbi Emeritus of the Congregation, Mrs. Bernard Friedman and Betty Arbitter.

The remaining two are in honor of June Arbitter's Bat Mitzvah and in honor of Sara Arbitter. All five of the Congregation's Torahs — the Scrolls made of parchment that contain the Five Books of Moses — will be Covered by these Mantles for the Dedication. Rabbi Edwards has selected "Build me a Sanctuary" as his sermon topic for the evening. Cantor Henry Greenberg will assist in the service by chanting the liturgy. The service will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat hosted by the ladies of the congregation.

Saturday morning services will begin at 10 and will also be conducted by Rabbi Edwards and Greenberg. "What Have we Sacrificed" will be Rabbi Edwards' sermon topic. Concluding the Passover Festival begun the week previous, services will be held at Congregation B'nai Israel on April 22 at 8 p.m., Monday at 7:30 a.m. and again at 8 p.m. and concluding on April 24, 7:30 a.m. and 9 a.m. during which the Yiskor Memorial Service will be held.

Family Night At Daly City LDS Church

The Balboa and Daly City Wards of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, commonly known as the Mormon Church, have scheduled a special family night at the Church to acquaint those who are interested with what the Latter-day Saints are doing to promote family unity.

The night will be full of entertainment, and will include the viewing of a short motion picture entitled, "In This Holy Place." This film deals with questions concerning the eternal purpose of the family and explains why the Latter-day Saints are such a family oriented group.

The Family Night will begin at 7:30 on April 20 and will be held at the Latter-day Saint chapel which is located on the corner of Brunswick and Hillside Blvd., Daly City.

A tour of transite paintings and other displays furnished by the organizations of the Church will be shown to illustrate each organization's purpose in developing family unity.

Guests will have the opportunity to ask any questions they might have concerning the beliefs of the Church and any additional information concerning the Family Night may be obtained by phoning 755-5223 or 756-4723.

Holy Week Services Announced

Services of this Holy Week are announced at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377 — 87th Street, Daly City.

The Maundy Thursday Communion Service is held this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The church choir will sing, church officers will help lead, and the pastor, Herbert Tweedie, will bring a devotional sermon on the meaning of The Last Supper. On this Good Friday a Union Service will be held here from 12:30 to 2:00 p.m. with four pastors participating from the United Methodist, Westlake Community Baptist, Westlake Lutheran and the host church.

The public is invited for a brief part of the service or for all the service in devotional commemoration of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. Bible copies of Luke's Gospel and The Acts will be given to each attendant for Key '73. The 5:25 a.m. Easter Sunrise Service is held atop Mt. Davidson in San Francisco as arranged by the S.F. Council of Churches.

Easter Sunday Services are at 8:30 and 10 a.m. in the local church.

Jeff Grammer School Grads of '23 Meet

A class reunion at Martine's Steak Pit in Millbrae attended by members of the Jefferson Grammar School graduation class of 1923.

After 50 years of separation, the group reminisced of the "good old days" at Jefferson Grammar in Colma — now Daly City.

A large Jefferson banner was strung above the entrance to the dining room, accordion music was provided by Rich Landi, corsages and table floral arrangements donated by graduate Frank Perata.

After the pledge of allegiance to our flag, a prayer was read by Margaret Grady Varni in honor of the deceased principal, William J. Savage, teacher Helen Gilchrist and classmates Norman Kennedy, Joseph Camenzind and Ettore Giorni. A complimentary letter was read from the mayor of Daly City, Bernard Lycett.

Edward Dennis, master of ceremonies, called on each graduate to tell a short story of "Jeff" school days.

Of the 40 persons attending 20 were graduates: Dennis, Raymond Bocci, Herman Lorenz, Margaret Grady Varni, Norma Perata Lembi, Henry Suenderman, Mary Zipser Lewis, Ida Silicani Bueno, Eleanor Tealdi Garibaldi, Gerry Lagomarsino Patterson, Albert Belli, Louise Silicani Castro, Frank Perata, Dominic Olcese, Mabel Cereghino Curotto, Mary

Haskins Langbein, Harold Oakes, Ernest Granucci, Christine Baalestra Flores and Fred Bauer.

Due to illness, Anthony J. Gaggero, Frank Michilietti and Mary Corish Conci could not attend.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters to Meet

Seven Northern Peninsula chapters of Beta Sigma Phi will gather at the Rodeway Inn in South San Francisco to observe the forty-second anniversary of the sorority's founding. Mrs. Carl Wind is chairman of the formal dinner event.

Founded during the depression in 1931 by Walter W. Ross in Kansas City, Missouri, the organization is based on philosophy of life, learning, and friendship.

It is basically a cultural organization which adapts the humanities approach to the study of liberal arts. Program booklets are provided and each member contributes his share to a program session.

Service wise Beta Sigma Phi's contribute nationally to Cancer Research and Cystic Fibrosis research, and locally to many different and varied charities.

Theme of the 1973 Founder's Day is "Lead a Queenly Quest." Each chapter will adapt the theme her own way in the centerpieces, which will later be judged by Mrs. William Jones, Central Council.

A surprised member will be "Girl of the Year," one who has contributed much to the benefit of the organization.

Resumes of the years activities in each chapter will take the form of skits to be presented following dinner.

Highlighting the evening will be the candlelight Ritual of Jewels, conducted by Xi Lambda Sigma chapter. Qualifying for the degree are: Toby Busani, Virginia Hesley, Diane Ortiz, Jean Proctor, and Sue Wright, Eta Gamma chapter; Linda Carson, Rita Saavindra, Sharon Woodard, Maria Stowell, and Carol Feiler, Delta Alpha Theta, San Bruno.

From Psi Epsilon chapter, South San Francisco, Pam Richardson, Julie Lord, Marge Johnson, Leslie Ann Winters, and Madeline Nissen; and Daly City's Nu Sigma chapter will present Susan Brødbury, Lesley MacTavish, and Kathy Sanne-man. Myrna Buswell, Xi Rho Zeta, San Bruno, will also receive the degree. They will be Mistress of ceremonies is Northern Peninsula Inter-City Council president Mrs. Thomas Johnson. welcomed by Mrs. Virginia Sheridan.

Sorority Selects President

Mrs. John Baciagalupi has been chosen to head Xi Kappa Upsilon chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, for the coming year. She has been active in the chapter for four years, having formerly served in a Ritual of Jewels chapter, Eta Gamma. She resides in San Francisco.

Mrs. Don Durea was named vice-president; Mrs. James Pitman, secretary, and Mrs. Tom Johnson, treasurer. Council representatives are Mrs. Jack Remos, Mrs. Baciagalupi, and Mrs. Jonson.

Final rehearsal of a Founder's day skit is on the agenda for Xi Kappa Upsilon members when they meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Seramin on April 25.

Mrs. Clyde Osborne and Mrs. James Pitman have contributed their talents, respectively, to writing the skit and designing the table centerpiece for the occasion. Eleven members will attend the dinner at the Rodeway Inn, April 27.

Mrs. James Mose, Mrs. Seramin, and Mrs. Don Strand combined their efforts to plan a successful "Fun Night", at which games and dancing were featured. The affair was held at the Redwood City Elks Club, and was the chapter's spring social to which husbands were invited.

In lieu of last week's meeting, the group attended the Sammy Davis, Jr. show at the Circle Star Theater.

THE LEAGUE of Women Voters of North San Mateo County elected Mrs. Jackie Jacobberger, of South San Francisco, president for the league's 1973-1975 term, at their annual meeting held April 7 in Daly City. Other officers included Mmes. Lyn Schwartz, Mme. Jacobberger, Jane Massen, and Betty Fleming.

Terra Nova Topics

Terra Nova's annual Open House was held last Thursday night, April 10. Each department set up a display for the parents to view, and all teachers were available for information.

Combined with the open house was the annual Fine Arts Festival, with art objects on display at 1:30 to 3 p.m. and 7:30 to 9. Activities of the festival included drama students performing short plays: The art display was of drawings, oil and water paintings, sculptures, and pottery. Some of the art items were for sale. Joyce Nelson, an art student who is known to be a very good artist, sold three of her paintings at the festival.

TIGER TALES is out for the third issue of this year. This issue contains a story about the black minority of Terra Nova, written by editor-in-chief Mary Van Zant. The story is titled, "In Grammar School, I didn't know about prejudice." One story informs of the fight and the plans for our little theater, written by Assistant News Editor Lance Hilo. Sandy Bryant wrote a feature story about the teachers who have been with Terra Nova ever since Terra Nova classes were held at Westmoor. Topics of other stories included astrology, the dying fad of hockey, golf and the school for the handicapped.

Capturing the Mood of Spring Is Hope Goal

There is something about spring, particularly late April that is associated with a re-birth of nature, purpose, and hope.

Members of Hope Lutheran Ladies Guild will attempt to capture this mood in its Spring luncheon which this year will have a Renaissance theme. Held on Friday, April 27, in the Hope Parish Hall from 11:30 to 1:00, the luncheon will feature a bake sale with many goodies from the Renaissance, a luncheon of Renaissance foods, and a program of songs and ditties which came from that period. Beautiful handicraft made by members of the Guild will depict Renaissance designs and legends. Table decorations and special effects will also carry out the luncheon theme.

The members of the Guild extend a warm invitation to the general public to attend the luncheon for they feel it will be fun and will provide guests with an extra touch of Spring. There will be a donation of $1.75 for adults and $.75 for children.

Pacifica Youth Commission to Sponsor Auction

Pacifica's Youth Advisory Commission, (YAC), is sponsoring the Youth In Action Auction, which will be televised on Channel 8 on May 16, 17, 18.

The commission hopes to raise enough money to create summer jobs for the youth in Pacifica and to establish a more permanent Youth Employment Service.

It's possible that a community beautification and clean-up program would be organized so that the youth would be employed — clean up the beaches, plant the green belt areas, and

Cancer Society's Role

By NATALIE LANAM
American Cancer Society

Area residents who have ever lost a friend or a relative from cancer know only too well the tragedy and heartbreak that is involved.

This, coupled with the realization that in San Mateo County alone, one-third of the deaths may have been needless, makes it even more of a loss.

This year, more than 750 county residents will die of cancer. The needless deaths are due in large part to the patient's unnecessary concerns and delays.

The San Mateo County Unit of the American Cancer Society has designated April as their Cancer Crusade Month. Volunteers will be marching locally to distribute literature and to solicit funds for future programs. According to Mrs. William Doherty, County Crusade Chairman, the Unit's goal this year will be $247,000. "We will need this amount in order to continue our present program to combat cancer."

It is interesting to note that out of every dollar collected, 35.9 cents goes directly into research. 27 cents goes into public and professional education, and 17.5 cents goes into patient and community services. The remainder goes toward fund raising programs and management.

In research, American Cancer Society grant to fund research at the Stanford Medical Center as of January, 1972, totaled $794,428.

Educational programs to the Community include supplying films, speakers, exhibits and other important literature locally in order to reach people with life saving facts. Latest diagnostic information about cancer is made available to physicians, medical students, dentists, nurses and related professions.

One of the most important services provided by the local Cancer Society are the rehabilitative programs. Transportation is provided to cancer patients for treatment. Special programs are offered to breast surgery victims as well as colostomy patients. Presently, the American Cancer Society is developing a Speech Therapy program to provide assistance for laryngectomies. Volunteers are still needed in all parts of the County to distribute literature. Office workers are needed to answer phones or to type.

For further information call the San Mateo County Unit of the American Cancer Society at 341-8749. Offices are located at 1517 South B Street in San Mateo.

Family Forum

THE "HAMAND BACON" booth headed by co-chairmen Don Bechtel and Gerry Pult, is among 20 booths that will have various types of merchandise available at Our Lady of Mercy's annual festival. The event will open May 3 and run through May 6. A chicken dinner, prepared by Joe's of Westlake, will be served on May 5.

Guest Cantor at

Israel-Judah

Friday, Saturday

Beth Israel-Judea will welcome Cantor Jehuda Keller as a guest to their congregation on Friday and Saturday.

Cantor Keller received his earliest training from his father, Cantor Abraham Keller. He has attended the Hebrew Theological Seminary, College of Jewish Studies, University of Judaism and Cantorial School in Chicago. During the past few years, he has served as cantor with various congregations in the southern areas of California. Cantor Keller will be leading the musical portions of the services on this weekend. Services begin at 8:30 p.m. in the temple on Brotherhood Way.

Beth Israel-Judea's adult education program will resume on Sunday, April 29 at 10 a.m. in Fellowship Hall at the Temple on Brotherhood. Jerry Molton, chairman, has announced that the series will be conducted by Joseph Friedman, vice president and chairman of the Ritual Committee of the congregation. Friedman's subject will be "Current Judaism and Current Christianity — a Layman's Comparison."

Burlingame First Home For Justweds

St. Veronica's Church in South San Francisco was the setting for the marriage of Linda Lee Meise and Gudy Sidney Garner who are now living in Burlingame.

The new matron is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Meise of South San Francisco, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Garner of San Mateo.

When the bride walked to the altar with her father, she was dressed in a long white satin gown with a bodice of lace over satin. A light pink satin dress was worn by Karla Oliveira, the maid of honor, and similar dresses in lavender shades were worn by bridesmaids Jessica Garner, sister of the bridegroom, and Lora Meise, the bride's sister.

Brad Golding served as the best man. John Meise, brother of the bride, seated guests with Mike Powell.

Guy is also the brother of Mike and Tim Garner, a twin, and Harriet Johnson. Loretta Sams and Helen Garner.

SM Child Care Coordinating Council Meets

Old and new members of the Child Care Coordinating Council of San Mateo County (4C's) met April 4 to approve the by-laws and to select a Nominating Committee for the new Board of Directors.

The present goal of the 4C's is to coordinate and expand child care services throughout the county. The staff, funded by United Bay Area Crusade, has been working since late January under the direction of the Executive Committee Pro Tem.

The Council especially encourages the participation of parents as well as child care professionals.

The 4C's is now accepting nominations for the new Board of Directors. Nominations should be directed to the appropriate member of the Nominating Committee in the North County it is Anita Heyman, 993-6086 and on the Coastside it is Barbara Kelly, 728-3750.

All nominations must be received no later than 5 p.m., April 25.

Additional information may be obtained from the 4C's staff at the Mental Health Association office, 3802 El Camino Real, San Mateo, 94403 (telephone: 349-5588).

SPEAKER — Stan Shelton, of Redondo Beach, will be the speaker at the second public meeting of a six-week proclamation, sponsored by six local Baha'i Faith Communities, April 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Colma Elementary School, at 444 Market Street, (corner of Hillside and Market), in Daly City. He comes to the Bay Area as guest of the Baha'i Communities of Daly City, South San Francisco, San Bruno, Millbrae, Burlingame and San Mateo. Baha'is believe in loyalty to government, the golden rule, understanding among individuals and between nations, leading into a completely new world order of peace and love between all peoples, nations, and religions, as promised by Baha'u'llah.

Voice Speaks

Listen! There is a voice speaking in our cities, shouting for nearly a fourth of our citizens, the Mexican-Americans.

"We seek our basic god-given rights as human beings," it shouts, "... we are ready to give everything, even our lives, in our fight for social justice."

It is the voice of a people who feel the weight of four centuries of conquest; who cannot distinguish the Conquistadores of Spain from the employers of the United States.

Listen to the voice narrate a page of history. "He, the European, stuck his bloody fingers into the Indian brain and at the point of the sword, gun, and cross ripped away a vision of human existence. He forced the Indian to accept his world, his reality, his scheme of things, in which the Indian and his descendants would forever be something less than men in the hierarchy of living things."

THROUGH AN ANTHOLOGY entitled, "Aztlán," the voice rings with the words of a people who shout, "The scars of history are on my face and the veins of my body ache."

Into their anthology Luis Valdez and Stan Steiner have placed a recording of the voice of a minority that wants "the benefits and the responsibility of citizenship but not the cultural trappings of the majority." The world has heard such words before from the Welsh, the Scotch, and the Irish of Britain; from the Basques of Spain; from the Jews, the Belgians, the Bengalis, and the American Negroes. Citizenship, cooperation is their goal; not assimilation.

"We are Indian, blood and soul," shout the Chicano Americans, in words that resemble the age-old cry of minorities. "Aztlán" is the name of our Mestizo nation, existing to the north of Mexico within the borders of the United States. Its people are Americans but "a far cry from the racist stereotypes of the John Steinbeck past."

The question posed by authors in Valdez and Steiner's book, "Aztlán," is whether the United States is mature enough to grant full citizenship to minorities within its borders without imposing on the members of the minority a way of life that is "second hand" and "full of the trash of the white man's world."

BECAUSE IT POSES this question "Aztlán" is a significant book that should be widely read and understood. It is a book that states with the pens of many the desire of the Chicano to live with dignity among other Americans.

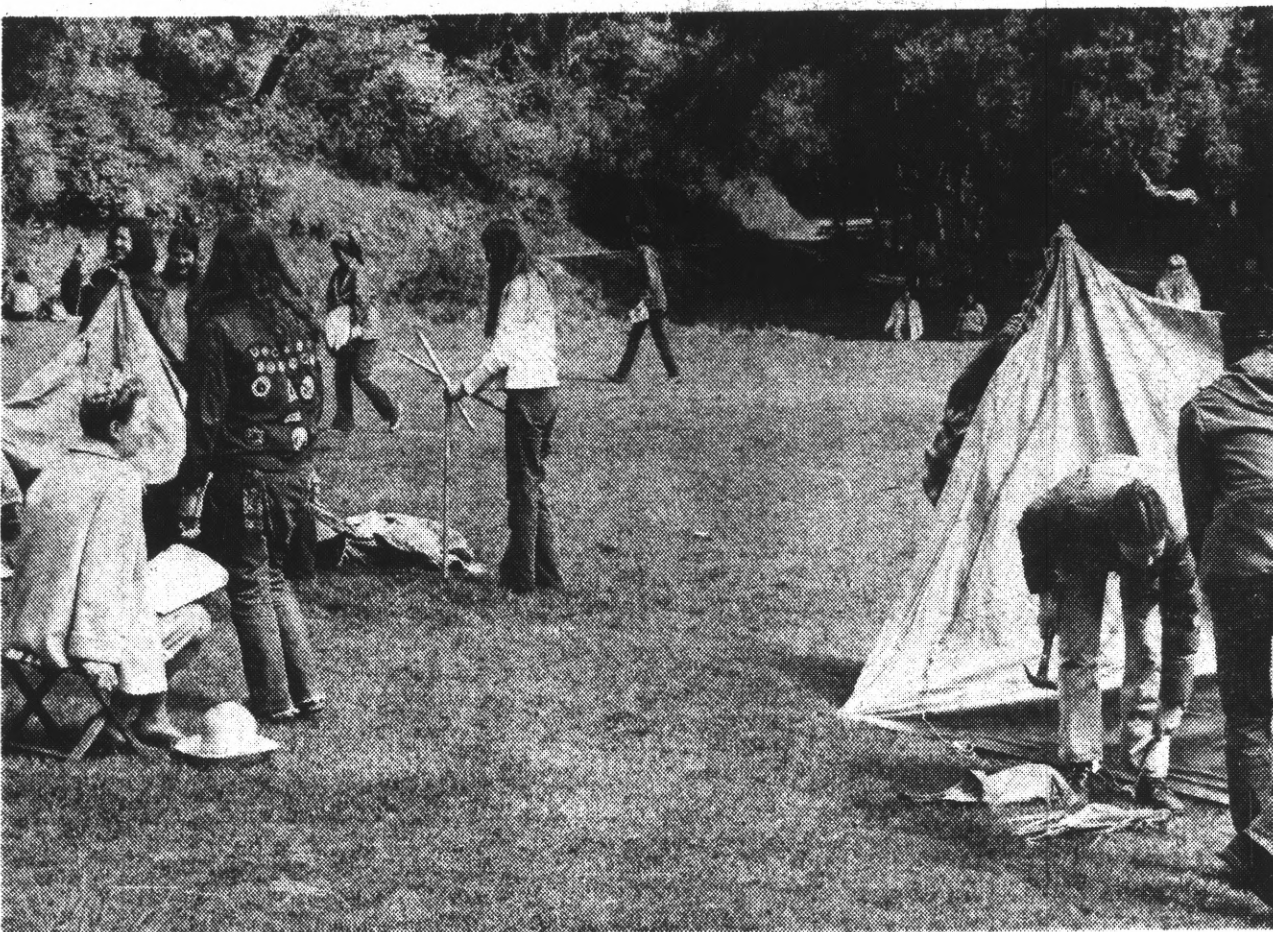

This dignity cannot be achieved by dropping the Chicano into the melting pot. For them, with five centuries of history and culture behind them "the melting pot concept is a sham: It is a crucible that scientifically disintegrates the human spirit, melting down entire cultures into a thin white residue the average gabacho (city) can harmlessly absorb."

"Aztlán" warns America that the Mestizos "reject the semantic games of sociologists and whitewashed Mexicans who frantically identify us as Mexican-Americans, Spanish-Americans, Latin-Americans, Spanish-speaking, Spanish-surname, Americans of Mexican descent, etc."

The authors write, "We further reject efforts to make us disappear into the white melting pot, only to be hauled out again when it is convenient or profitable for gabacho politicians. . . . We are to begin with Mestizos — a powerful blend of indigenous America with European-Arabian Spain, usually recognizable for the natural bronze tone it lends to human skin."

THE BOOK, "AZTLÁN," is an anthology to interest thoughtful men. Here are 13 sections filled with pieces by Mexicans and Chicanos from the days of the Mayans to the present time. One piece gives General Santa Ana's version of the Battle of the Alamo. Another carries Father Bartolome de las Casas' charge that the Conquistadores were unjust. Still another cries that "California is lost." Some pieces tell the story of the Mestizo people from the point of view of revolutionaries; other tell of Chicano women in American cities; some translate into words the "people's" love for the earth; some describe life in a Mexican barrio; some speak of God; and others, of the natives of America.

Surely "Aztlán" is a book that many people of our city and our country should read and understand.

SOME 300 Girl Scouts from throughout the Bay Area joined in a special meet of 24 troops in a competition held at Huddart Park last weekend. San Mateo Troop 452 took first place. Thirteen special events were judged. San Bruno Troop 2493 came in seventh place and Millbrae Troop 2956 was ninth. Here the Girl Scouts are shown setting up camp. (Post Photo)

A Lot of Love at Airport USO

By GEORGE GOLDING

"I don't know why you want to write about me," she said, "you ought to be writing about the servicemen."

Margaret Kennedy has been volunteering her services at the USO Lounge every Sunday since it opened at San Francisco International Airport seven years ago this June.

"They have done wonders up there for the boys," she says.

Wife of John Kennedy, retired Captain of the California Highway Patrol at Redwood City, Mrs. Kennedy has logged more than 2000 hours of volunteer time.

"I heard it over the radio," she says, and she became a volunteer. She's been working two three-hour shifts each Sunday ever since, "except when I'm on vacation of course."

Mrs. Kennedy had been picked for the interview as a "typical" volunteer, not a leader, but a worker.

She is typical in the sense of being a woman, married, and devoted to serving the servicemen at the USO. She is not typical in the sense that she has served longer than all but two others (Genevieve Tracy and Evelyn Marks), and will soon receive a gold-plated USO pin with six service stars, as her reward.

"Six is as many as you can get," she says.

"I think it is wonderful. I have seen some happy faces, helped out some of the younger men who were bewildered and didn't know what to do. Husbands and wives sometimes meet up here when he is coming home from overseas, and they are all happy."

"I have also seen some awful sorrows, some fear. Some of the boys from the farm country who have never flown before, and they have flown here and are about to go off to the unknown."

"I used to give the fellows money, a couple of dollars, you know. One time, I helped a young boy out, and a year later he came back from Vietnam and paid me back. He remembered all that time, and it almost made me cry."

There is also a "comment"

Volunteers are not supposed to give servicemen money. Mostly, they do light housekeeping in the spacious room on the airport's second floor, overlooking the landing field. They set out trays of cookies and doughnuts donated by bakeries and church groups. They make coffee, and straighten magazines. They answer questions on how to get to Ford Ord, or Travis, where to catch a bus, how to find a luggage locker.

Most of the questions are referred to the USO's staff members now, but over seven years Mrs. Kennedy has talked with many, many servicemen.

"That's why I like Sunday afternoons," she says. "It is quiet, there's more time to talk."

"Men and boys aren't supposed to cry, you know. That's a mistake we make. Sometimes they need to talk something off. A boy can have a great fear, going out to nowhere."

"Most of the boys come in with no money, of course. I don't know why they do that, they don't plan ahead, or they don't know where they are going, and they'll ask if there's a military bus to Oakland, or some place."

"I've had lots of stories. The home life of some of these boys hasn't been too good, or there are other things."

"Don't forget, we still have boys going over," she says, "we still have men in Cambodia and Thailand, and Korea."

"We still have men coming back, some of them with Vietnamese wives and children. They love them, but I often wonder how it's going to be when they get them home to Mama."

"The boys all seem so young."

She shows off the "state" books, a big binder for each of the 50 states, in which USO visitors may list their names and hometowns, where they are coming from and where they are going. "Coming from Fort Ord," an entry might say, "going to HELL." Another says "Chu Lai," under coming from, and "going to heaven."

At times, knowing whether a person is "military" or not isn't so easy. Some of the services permit longer hair than they used to, and most men change into civilian clothes as soon as possible.

"All the fellows are in civvies now. They come off the plane, and they head for the bathroom to change."

"I try to talk them into wearing their uniforms home so their mothers can honor them, but they say people look down on them. They won't wear them."

"I don't know why you want to write about me. Write about the boys."

book, another binder in which the men often write notes to the USO.

"The first friendly face I've seen in a year," is the scribbled message of a man just back from Vietnam.

The books are Mrs. Kennedy's pride. She helped originate them and has kept them up over the years.

"We used to have a 'patch board,' too," she says, a poster with the shoulder patches of many service units, pinned on it.

"Sometimes the men would see it, and go to their duffle bags to get one of their own and pin it up there."

"Other times, they'd have collections of their own, and they'd snitch one. We have had some beauties. We had one from the Pentagon once, but somebody got it."

"My husband, John, used to come up with me on Sunday evenings, and help with the patch board. He's like a lot of the husbands of the volunteers, they do a lot of work."

At the Airport USO Lounge, almost everything is free, to the servicemen. One of the problems with its location is that the public elevator stops smack in the middle of it, and people get off looking for the outside observation deck.

Volunteers admit that it is awkward, asking people to leave, "but we try to explain that it is only for the active military, and their dependents."

A Challenge

When did the decline of the Roman Empire begin? Opinion varies, and two of the most respected historians disagree substantially.

Gibbon begins his massive work, "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire" with a glowing account of the "Golden Age of the Antonines," and marks the reign of Commodus (180-192 A.D.) as the time of change from unity and prosperity to decline and eventual fall.

Arnold Toynbee takes a different view. In "A Study of History" (Oxford University Press 1946) he sees the age of the Antonines as "not the summer but the 'Indian' summer of Hellenic history." Alluding to the title of Gibbon's work he writes: "The author of a history that bears that name and that starts in the second century of the Christian era is surely beginning his narrative at a point that is very near the end of the actual story."

Underlying this difference, of course, is a problem of perspective. Gibbon wrote of Rome in a national sense and Toynbee sees his (Gibbon's) "intelligible field of historical study" as not the Roman Empire but Hellenic Civilization. Toynbee then presumes to suggest a proper starting date of decline as the time of the outbreak of the Peloponnesian War in 431 B.C.

Gibbon, long gone, is not able to answer, but it seems that if the two had been able to consult they might, through definition of Gibbon's work have eliminated several centuries from Toynbee's presumption. Nonetheless, his main point remains valid, the decline of Rome certainly had its true beginnings at an earlier time than 180 A.D. Gibbon, in large part, records results rather than causes, and we must look to other histories to understand why decline was inevitable.

These considerations cannot but give rise to brooding about the American rise, decline, and fall. Where are we in the timeline of history?

Any answer to the question requires definition. Toynbee might suggest that in considering "America" our true frame of reference should be modern Western Civilization. He might seize upon such ancient happenings as Waterloo, and certainly Tannenberg and the fall of the Czars.

Like Gibbon, however, let us consider just the United States of America, and its current posture in a world of competing states. Is it later than we think?

It may well be. A strong case can be made that we reached our zenith in the years between 1945 and 1965. While we are not the rulers of the world during this time, we could have been.

We possessed the economic, organizational and military power to dominate. We had no equals and were free to shape the globe to the extent that our will and conscience would allow. Rome, in her greatest days was bounded by frontiers and walls. No such barriers stood between America and world domination during the ten years following World War II.

Which way things go depends, of course, upon us. At this turning point our attitudes can almost set the course. If the purveyors of gloom and doom determine the national mood, these could, indeed be days of fall and decline. If, on the other hand, we view our present difficulties as a challenge, we can write an entirely different history.

The form of the world and of events were as they were because we willed them to be so. It was only later that Russian technology and a competing atomic arsenal limited our options. Certainly from mid-1955 onward the choice was no longer ours alone. After that time the imposition of our will upon others involved great risks and dangers and our vast power became limited.

It is conceivable that history will remember these as the ultimate years of one nation ascendancy, and that all that followed was decline. Certainly, the events of the 60's neatly fall into the gloomy pattern of such theorizing.

During that unfortunate decade external and internal tensions rose. Our naval and merchant marine strength was challenged, and at least equalled. Our natural resources dwindled, and for the first time the exhaustion of vital raw materials could be predicted. Internal dissension was prevalent, and habits of violence were acquired. As a nation we fought more than we sold, and other nations challenged our technical competence. Inflationary pressures mounted and the miracle of constant gains in productivity began to sag. Political assassination followed political assassination and the almost universal ownership of guns assured more. We fought, and after great effort stalemated an ugly land war on the Asian continent. These years were marked by class war, racial conflict, rising crime and birth of a drug culture.

Those of melancholy disposition could easily accept the analogy and claim that our present days are those of early decline and that worse is to come. Hopefully, such a conclusion is too simplistic; Toynbee sees history as cyclical and as involving a series of challenges and responses, rallies and relapses.

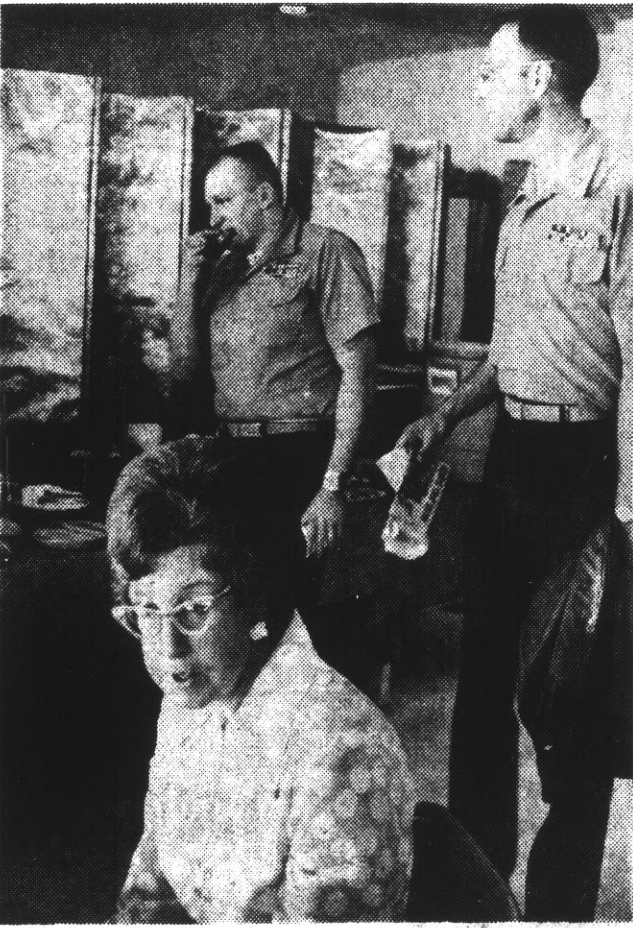

Thus, a different view could be taken of current circumstances. The post war years could be considered as proving that the better side of man can be expressed through the action of nations. The evolution of the competitive age, with at least three nations matched in power and five areas in economic strength could be seen as the result of our choice and refusal to use ultimate power to subjugate others.

In this context, the sixties should be viewed as a challenge to American drive, inventiveness, resiliency and decency. That sorry decade could be seen as a goad to the American people and their ability to succeed in a world of their own making — one made up of equals and competing powers. The seventies could be, therefore, a time of rally, not rout, of hope, not disintegration.

Which way things go depends, of course, upon us. At this turning point our attitudes can almost set the course. If the purveyors of gloom and doom determine the national mood, these could, indeed be days of fall and decline. If, on the other hand, we view our present difficulties as a challenge, we can write an entirely different history.

For the Consumer

Spring and 'The Terrible Williamsons'

It is spring and with spring comes the arrival of the "Terrible Williamsons." The Williamsons are a legendary family of American gypsies who travel north in the spring and south in the fall. Just how many Williamsons there are in the clan no one knows but it is estimated that there are between 75-100 families. They play a door-to-door trade, selling phony merchandise and bilking the American public at an estimated $1,000,000 a year.

The Better Business Bureaus and law enforcement agencies across the country have large files on the history of this Scottish clan, whose originator came to the United States in the 90's. But for over half a century it has been a losing battle to stop these crafty itinerants from victimizing homeowners. When they are caught for selling without a city license, the fines incurred are considered just part of their overhead business.

A WILLIAMSON knocked at my door last week. How did I recognize him? Their method of approach and operation of the Williamson gang is always the same. The young, personable young man in paint spotted jeans gave me the same pitch used for years. "He had just finished a job in the neighborhood and so therefore could give me a good price on resurfacing the driveway." Looking out my door I saw a goodlooking truck sitting in the driveway. The Williamsons travel in the most expensive cars and trucks.

I asked him for his card and was given a homemade business card, stamped with his name and address across the Bay. The Williamsons do not stay in the cities. They live in outlying motels and work the suburban areas. They tour about looking for homes in need of a paint job and driveways that need resurfacing. They display cans of well-known brands of paint and offer a 10 year guarantee. All this sounds very good to the owner who is interested in getting a job for half the price he would pay a local painter. The catch is that the good paint is never used on a building. They use cheap paint, often spread with crankcase oil, which washes off with the first rain.

THEY SELL HOMEOWNERS' "quickie" roof oiling jobs, collect from $80 to $200 for a few minutes work. The black top driveway is another specialty of the Williamson gang. The black shiny goop stays on indefinitely. There were a number of such driveways in this area a few years ago. The low price the Williamsons quote, induces the gullible to sign contracts. One homeowner contracted for a $30 job. When the bill was rendered it was, $150. One customer paid $800 and another $1,100 for a few hours of inferior work which had to be done over.

The Williamsons are always ahead of the authorities. They slip into a city, paint houses and coat driveways with crankcase oil, collect the money and then leave their motels without leaving any address.

Spring is here and once again Better Business Bureau warns against dealing with unfair repair firms.

Millbrae Moratorium Is Ended

ainst building on the grassy 22 acres of St. Dunstan church property, ended last week with a 3-2 vote of the City Council. The council's vote was for extending the year-old moratorium another year, but a 4-1 vote was required to pass.

Failure of the proposed extension to win council approval clears the way for development of the land in a swath of housing, which was what brought about the moratorium last year.

Since then, Millbrae has had a bond campaign and an election, and citizens voted 61 per cent in favor of buying the sloping area for "open space," at a price of $1,300,000.

The city's existing moratorium dies April 18, and Millbrae's option to purchase the land from the Archdiocese of San Francisco, dies in June. Councilmen who have favored the bond campaign, bitterly commented that there was no chance of the city raising the money to buy the land, because public support had just not been adequate.

Like last year's moratorium, last night's move to extend the no-build rule was based on the need to allow completion of a General Plan re-study, which is under way.

Council members Barney Spera and William Glang said that although the General Plan might suggest some different use of the tree-lined plot than single-family residential, the only probable alternative was to preserve it as open space. The city is unable to do that, they suggested.

Mayor Bernard Esser at first sided with Spera and Glang, citing the lack of public interest in the announced public hearing to determine whether the moratorium should be continued. Two people spoke in favor of extending the year-old rule, one spoke against it.

Neil Davidson of Cal Properties, which has had plans for the acreage for some two years, said the vote made little difference to him.

His company had already filed a proposal to build homes on the land, he said, and would go ahead with that proposal under "special permit" provisions of the moratorium ordinance, if it had been continued.

Councilmen Harold Purpus and Arthur Lepore verbally fought to extend the moratorium, saying that while an extension of the law might not preserve the property, letting the ordinance die would assure that it could not be preserved.

Mrs. Mary Griffin, 67 Ora Vista Avenue, pleaded that the law should be extended.

"Last fall," she said, "Millbrae was the only city in the state to fail to pass an open space bond issue. There should be some way for the city to save face."

Vince Augustinovich, 641 Clearfield Drive, also pleaded for the extension. He said he had collected more than 392 signatures, asking that the bond issue be put back on the ballot for public vote.

"Ninety per cent of the people

String Quartet, Choir at Church

A String Quartet is to accompany the Westlake Community Baptist Sanctuary Choir in presentation of the Easter portion of "Handel's Messiah" on Maunday Thursday at 8 p.m., April 19.

The concert is under the direction of Jack Palmer. Robin Taber is concert master; Ed Song, second violin; Donald McKenzie, viola; John Perera, cello; John Schoolcraft, cornet; Ivyle Lederer, organist; and Lorraine Taber pianist.

The soloists will be Joanne Palmer, soprano; Kathleen Kudman, mezzo; Merle Taber, tenor; and William Smith, baritone.

The public is invited.

Lassie at Tanforan Center Today

The most famous dog the world has ever known will be at Tanforan Park Shopping Center today at 4 p.m.

Rudd Weatherwax, Lassie's owner and trainer, will put the beautiful collie through her paces at the San Bruno shopping center.

Hundreds of prizes will be given to children attending the show including a drawing for an AKC registered collie puppy donated by Doektor Pet Center at Tanforan and KGO Radio, the sponsors of the Lassie Show.

The Lassie now on television is the fifth generation Lassie. The first Lassie starred with Elizabeth Taylor in the movie "Lassie Come Home." Weatherwax owned and trained that dog all his way back in 1941 and in his lifetime has personally trained more than 1500 dogs.

While the original "Lassie Come Home" story cast Lassie as a female, all five generations have been males.

There has never been more than one Lassie at a time. From time to time Rudd has heard stories claiming that there were as many as 20 Lassies at a time. In truth it would be much harder to teach a number of dogs a limited number of tricks than to train one dog to become the actual "super-star."

Holy Angels to Arrange Tour

A "Tour d'Elegance de San Francisco" will be this year's special event for members and friends of Holy Angels.

The tour is scheduled for April 28, from noon to 5 p.m. and will be highlighted by a visit to the Firehouse of Mrs.

Ralph Davies on Green Street, (Russian Hill), where refreshments will be served.

There will also be a visit to the California Historical Society. Tickets are limited. For reservations call 756-2068.

Serramonte High-lites

Many honors and awards are coming to the students of Serramonte High School. California State Scholarship winners are Robert Garay, Julie Jimenez, Van Johnson, Julia Jung, Richard Kushman, Eugene Ong, Marlane Rosen, Deborah Steinberg, Peter Storm, and Stanley Yamamoto.

Ken Johnson placed third in the State Qualifying Speech Tournament and will compete in the finals in early May. The Optimist Speech contest was won by Ralph Howard with Lori Kaplan placing third — a great accomplishment for her since this was the first year that girls were allowed to enter this contest.

Alison Leong received a cash award in the Elk Lodge "Most Valuable Student" scholarship contest. Another cash award was won by the Serramonte VICA club when they entered the Stonestown Youth Trade Fair and their entry took first place for the most inventive product. Maggie Gannon won an award in the Serramonte Center Art Show and Nancy Luders received an honorable mention. And Serramonte Student Body President Rick Kushman has been chosen as a commended student in the National Merit Scholarship program.

Serramonte High School recently hosted 100 fourth and fifth grade students from Eureka, California. The youngsters were on an annual five-day sightseeing trip of Northern California. They had spent the day seeing the San Francisco Zoo, the Aquarium and other points of interest in Golden Gate Park. After dinner at Fishermans Wharf the group arrived to spend the night in the Serramonte Gymnasium. They were very well behaved, welcome visitors and arose at 6 a.m. to continue their trip with a visit to Sacramento.

Arrangements for this trip were made through Edward Morgan, JUHSD superintendent, and Anthony Trujillo, Serramonte High School principal.

Top Samoan Wrestler Duels Police Chief

Some 40 officers from throughout the Peninsula sped to Brisbane in 20 to 25 patrol cars early on Saturday to break up a wild melee between a group of Samoans and the badly outnumbered Brisbane police department outside the 23 Club on Visitation Avenue.

When the battle finally ended a tactical alert was broadcast to all Peninsula police departments to be on the ready as some 50 to 60 Samoans had gathered at a bowling alley near the Cow Palace in Daly City to come down to Redwood City and rescue their chieftain — Peter Maiavia, 36, 275-pound professional wrestler often seen on television.

Maiavia, who also gave his name as Peter Maiavia Anderson, agreed to telephone from the jail, however, and convince his would-be rescuers to forget their battle plans.

During the battle, which attracted a milling crowd of some 150 witnesses, Maiavia allegedly threw Brisbane Police Chief Bille E. Beard, who weighs in at 175 pounds, against a patrol car. Officers said Mayor Jess Salmon was also involved in the fracas attempting to help his officers.

Maiavia, his wife, Leah Anderson, 40, and Faiva Faalevao, 28, of San Francisco, who weighs 220 pounds, were all charged with assault and battery on a police officer, resisting arrest and disturbing the peace.

Officers Alan Durson and Bob Davis reported they received a call to the 23 Club of a minor disturbance. They were told by officers to free their prisoner, another Samoan also grabbed the officers, but ran away before he could be apprehended. Durson broadcast a "Code 20, Officer needs assistance, urgent."

The first two South San Francisco officers on the scene quickly raised this to a "Code 30. Officers need assistance, emergency."

Officers from San Bruno, Daly City, Pacifica, San Mateo, the California Highway Patrol and the sheriff's office began speed-

Pacifica Appointments

The Pacifica City Council has appointed five citizens to three civic bodies.

Appointed to the Capital Improvements Committee were Connie Mason, 604 Linda Mar Boulevard; Joseph Shim, 39 Idelwild Court, and Ronald Venditti, 1123 Galvez Drive.

Edwin R. "Dick" Bell of 1234 Park Pacifica was appointed to the Transportation and Highways Committee. Darrel V. Greer, 384 Heathcliff Drive was appointed to the Health and Safety Committee.

Meanwhile, Richard T. Meier of 945 Oddstad Boulevard, a member of the Planning Commission, sent a letter of resignation from the Frontierland Amphitheater Ad Hoc Committee because of a conflict in meeting dates.

Councilmen introduced an ordinance raising the "Animal Advisory Committee" to a commission status in order to give the group more teeth in dealing with the problems of control of dogs and cats in Pacifica.

San Bruno Jail Riots

Grand Jury Raps Hongisto

San Francisco — Grand Jury charged that Sheriff Richard Hongisto knew four days in advance of a "demonstration" at the county jail in San Bruno which led to a fire and riot that cost some $20,000 in damage.

The sheriff responded to the jury report Friday by announcing the previous filing of a Superior Court suit claiming the jury investigating him was unconstitutionally selected.

The grand jury in a 17-page report to supervisors accused the controversial sheriff of a lack of leadership and operating so as to demoralize his deputies.

"I deplore the inaccuracies and biased perspective of the report," Hongisto said. "I am not at all surprised at the report."

The jury said after the Feb. 25 uprising got out of hand it took Hongisto three hours to arrive at the scene despite repeated telephone calls for help by his deputies.

The report said that prior to the riot there seemed to be a "complete breakdown of inmate discipline due to lack of positive direction from responsible officials."

"Lack of consistency on the part of some deputies, in the enforcement of the alleged rules and regulations enforced the feeling among inmates that rule infractions would be overlooked."

The report said Hongisto's deputies feel the sheriff "spends too little time administering his office and too much time on political activity."

In his suit, Hongisto claimed the method of selecting grand jurors excluded or unrepresented blacks, persons of Spanish surnames, Orientals, young persons from 18-25, "the very poor and the working poor."

Hongisto said he intended to pursue his suit to the U.S. Supreme Court if necessary.

Burlingame Lawyer Backs GOP Hopeful

A Burlingame attorney is helping to boost Indianapolis Mayor Richard Lugar's chances for the 1976 Republican presidential nomination.

Joseph Gughemetti, 25, who lives in Foster City, said today that he will be the chief spokesman in the far West for Lugar, 40, who attracted considerable national attention in 1970 as the National League of Cities' youngest president.

According to Gughemetti, he met Lugar about seven months ago when he was stationed with the military in Indiana.

Gughemetti and a number of other interested military lawyers decided at that time to do whatever they could to help Lugar get the '76 nomination. Lugar has already announced that he is a candidate for the presidency.

"The last time he ran for mayor in Indianapolis," Gughemetti said, "he got about 75 percent of the vote from people under 25. And he is a Republican."

He added that Lugar has lowered the tax rate and the crime rate in his city and he has also managed to have parts of the downtown section renovated.

Gughemetti, who is originally from San Francisco, said a regional office for Lugar would be open in that city soon.

"I'll be using San Mateo County as a base," Gughemetti said. "I'll be working throughout Alameda, San Francisco and San Mateo counties."

Gughemetti is associated with the Burlingame law firm of Jackson, Turner, Endeman and Mulcare.

He has lived in Foster City for about two months.

Final Arguments In Posada Case

The factor of time was the main point of contention as Deputy District Attorney Steven C. Grier and Defense Attorney James R. Tormey wound up their final arguments today in the murder trial of Edward W. Posada.

Grier, asking an "inescapable conclusion" that Posada is guilty of first-degree murder, stated there was no evidence of Posada's whereabouts between 2:05 p.m. and his arrival at the United Air Lines employe parking lot at 2:50 p.m. last November 28, the day Pellegrino J. Pellegrini was found slain in the office of Trimount-Western Corporation in San Mateo.

Tormey, on the other hand, maintained that Pellegrini was still alive about 3 p.m. the day of the slaying, contending it was the victim who "angrily" answered a telephone call which was overheard by the owner of an answering service which served the Trimount firm.

Grier surmised that Posada wore two sets of clothing, stuffing the bloody outer garments into a paper bag, along with the weapon and Pellegrini's still-missing wallet and driver's license, the latter two items taken "to make it look like a robbery, maybe as a trophy, who knows."

The deputy district attorney opened his 25-minute final argument before the jury of eight men and four women by describing the defendant as being "wildly jealous" of an affair his estranged wife, Judy, was having with Pellegrini.

Grier also contended that Marjorie Beaver, the woman with whom Posada had been having an affair for about four years, was lying in her testimony to save the defendant.

"She said she wants him," Grier stated, "if he beats this, she's got him... she'll do anything to have him, including getting on the witness stand and lying to you."

SSF Sentence

Lafo Malaueanu Uialegelei, 47-year-old San Franciscan who was arrested in South San Francisco following an accident last week, has been sentenced by Municipal Court Judge F. J. de Larios on a charge of drunken driving with a prior conviction.

The accident took place on Airport Boulevard and Linden Avenue. Uialegelei was injured and released by Kaiser Hospital following treatment.

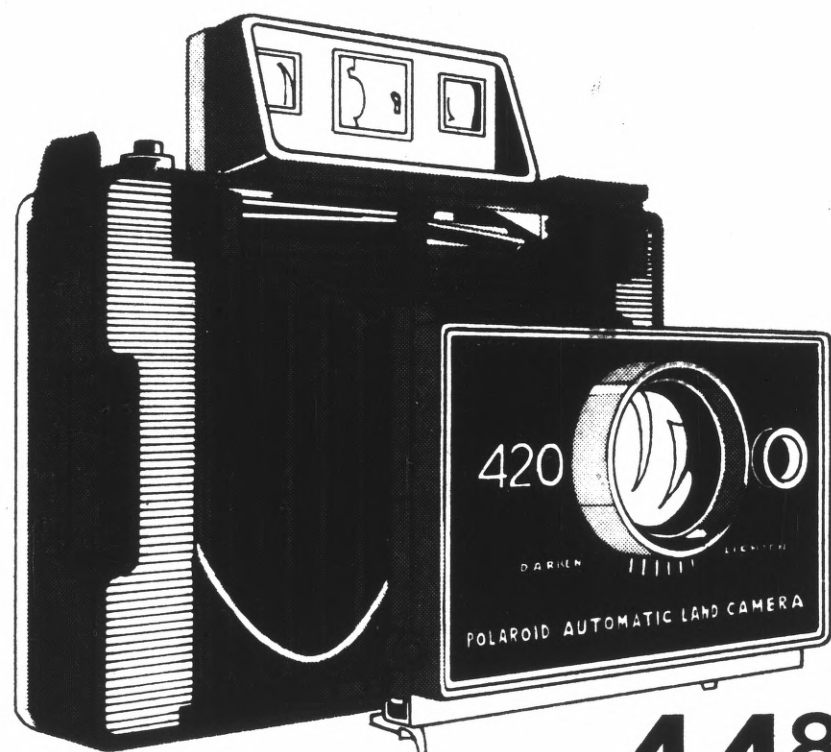

Judge de Larios sentenced Uialegelei to one year in County Jail, with all but six days suspended, fined him $302, and placed him on summary probation.

Television Sets Are Stolen

San Bruno police have booked Anthony Porcino, 39, of 2336 Rollingwood Drive, San Bruno, for the grand theft of $4,000.50 worth of television sets from The Emporium at the Tanforan Shopping Center.

According to the police report, the theft of some ten sets was carried out over a week-long period from the store's loading dock.

Safeway's Mrs. Wright's Easy-Scoop Biscuits

Recipe Compliments of Ladies' Luncheon League

2 1/2 Cups Mrs. Wright's Biscuit Mix
1/3 Cup Lucerne Instant Non-fat Dry Milk
1 1/2 Tablespoons Sugar
3/4 Cup of Water

Just mix all the ingredients with a fork in one bowl. The dough will be very wet... that's the way it should be. Scoop out the dough with a small ice cream scoop and place the biscuits on a cookie sheet (if you line it with foil you won't have any pan to clean). Grease cookie sheet or foil lightly before placing biscuits on it. This recipe makes 9-12 large biscuits depending on the size of the ice cream scoop. Bake for 10 to 12 minutes in a 450 degree oven and serve a happy family.

County Mulls RC Center Fund Request

San Mateo County supervisors delayed action this week on the first request it has received for county funds to replace the cutoff of federal funds to local poverty agencies.

Officials from PROBE, a community action agency for poverty areas in the Fair Oaks, Dumbarton and East Redwood City areas, requested $6,445.

Director Clifford Boxley explained that PROBE needs $13,290 to exist until the end of the fiscal year on June 30.

Boxley noted that Redwood City allocated half of the total.

County supervisors referred the request to County Manager M. D. Tarses with instructions to report back May 1.

Board Chairman Robert B. St. Clair said the board will hold a hearing at a later date to discuss possibilities of allocating county federal revenue-sharing funds to other poverty agencies.

Hear Talk On Housing

Wednesday night's meeting of the San Mateo Jaycees featured Townsend Carter, inspector for the City of San Mateo and the Housing Advisory Board. Carter reported to the entire membership on the first encounters for the clubs project "Jaycees Aid to Citizens" or J.A.C.

Prior to this report the Jaycees have offered to coordinate efforts of deserving cases who are found in violation of housing standards as determined by the Housing Advisory Board inspectors. So far only the San Mateo Community Projects and some Boy Scout groups have availed themselves but the cases heard thus far have not required any action by J.A.C.

To qualify, citizens must first be heard by the Housing Advisory Board at a hearing at which a member of the J.A.C. committee is always in attendance.

In other action, the Jaycees appointed Mel Lockey of Worthmore-Lapham Co. to represent the club on the board of directors for the San Mateo Community Projects and voted Paul Guiley and Frank Prisco to compete in the district-wide "Speak-Up" contest for county Jaycees at next month's San Bruno meeting. The board approved the use of Beresford Park for the annual Easter Egg Hunt to be held April 21st and commended Hector Massa and Paul Guiley for their work at the Glenwood Boys Ranch, showing travelogue pictures and films.

Burlingame Youth Dies Of Injuries

Burlingame High school student David Walker, 17, died this week at Mills Hospital of injuries received April 3 in a bicycle-car collision.

Police said the crash occurred at Cortez and Carmelita avenues, when young Walker's bicycle collided with a car, and he was thrown to the pavement, suffering an apparent concussion.

The accident, regarded at the time as an apparently minor traffic incident, is still under investigation. Police say the car was driven by Paul A. Studemeister, 19, 160 Bella Vista Drive, Hillsborough.

Witnesses told police that neither time, and the collision reportedly happened when Walker began a left turn.

Unconscious at the scene of the crash, he was taken to Mills Hospital's intensive care unit, and later moved to a private room.

Nature adds the spice that makes Morehouse so nice

Morehouse is naturally good. Made with pure mustard seed, fresh vinegar plus zesty spices. Try Morehouse at your house... costs less, gives you more.

Boxley said that PROBE officials would attend the revenue-sharing meeting in hopes of receiving permanent funds from the county, but stressed that the $6,445 request was for temporary funds to keep his agency "alive" in the meantime.

Another item on the agenda was a request by Half Moon Bay Mayor Cecil J. Marmont that the board urge the State Highway Commission to give high priority to improving State Highway 92 between Interstate Highway 280 and Half Moon Bay.

Marmont noted that since 1968, the California Highway Patrol has investigated 618 accidents on the stretch of road. Seven persons were killed and 235 injured, he said.

Marmont urged the board to join the San Mateo County Council of Mayors and the City of San Mateo in asking for the top priority designation. The board unanimously approved the requested resolution.

The supervisors also agreed to hire the engineering consulting firms of Wilsey and Ham and Kirker-Chapman to develop a flood control project for Colma Creek.

Deputy County Engineer Robert L. Sans predicted it will take one year to develop the plan and another two years to complete construction. Sans said he hoped that construction will begin next spring.

His remarks drew heated criticism from South San Francisco businessmen at the board meeting who said they are victims of periodic flooding of Colma Creek. General Contractor Buzz Haskins said over the years there has been "a lot of petty talk" about flooding conditions along the creek but added that "nothing is being done."

Other board members stressed that environmental impact reports must be completed and plans formulated before the project can begin.

"You are not going to snap your fingers and get the project started tomorrow," Supervisor Gerald F. Day said. He added that if the Army Corps of Engineers, rather than the county, developed the project it would "probably take seven years" before it was started.

Bullet Warning

Parents on the Coastside north of Half Moon Bay were alerted by the sheriff's office and Half Moon Bay police Tuesday to be on the watch for 56-caliber bullets that children have reportedly been finding in the area of the Montara lighthouse.

Recently Police Sergeant John Gonzales of Half Moon Bay turned over a bullet to the sheriff's crime lab which had been given him by the custodian at El Granada School. The custodian reported that the bullets have been distributed among students at the school.

Coastside Directions Topic

"New Directions for the Coastside" will be explored at the general meeting of the Environmental Quality Coordinating Council, April 19. The meeting is set for 7:30 p.m. at the San Carlos City Hall, 664 Elm Street. San Mateo County Planning Director Donald A. Wolfe will explain the County's "growth strategy" for channeling development along the Coastside. The new plan will be coming up for hearings before County officials during the next few months. Joseph Gladstone of the Coastside Coordinating Committee will present their "minimum growth" alternative. The speakers will then field questions from an expert panel including Mrs. Pat Barrentine of the Committee for Green Foothills; Fred Mortenson, City Manager for Half Moon Bay; Mrs. Nancy Maule of Montara; and Robert Gilmore of the Building Trades Council.

An Infinite Variety Of Fish Dishes

By JULIA CHILD
The French Chef

Fresh fish is becoming just as expensive as prime steak, but the different ways of cooking fish are infinitely more numerous than those for cooking beef. To anyone who has been brought up on boiled cod, broiled mackerel, and fried clams, for instance, it is a revelation to taste for the first time a dish of filets of sole poached in white wine and served in a sauce and creamy white wine sauce.

The recipes for sole filets alone could fill a fat volume, but fortunately almost all of them spring from a common beginning: it is what they are poached with or sauced in that gives them their particular character and their name.

Here are three examples of filets in white wine, the first with almonds, called simply aux amandes, then with hashed mushrooms where they become Bonne Femme, and finally with tomatoes Duglere.

With any of these, serve boiled rice or tiny boiled potatoes, and if you wish greenery, buttered spinach, broccoli flowerettes, peas, or asparagus tips. These lovely sole dishes are also perfect occasions for you to show off your best white Burgundy or Pinot Blanc wines.

THE FISH. Real sole does not grow in American waters, although the European sole is sometimes imported. What we call sole is flounder, lemon sole, dab, and gray sole, with Monterey and Petrale soles available on the West Coast. Flounder and lemon-sole filets are usually the least expensive, and also are more likely to flake apart when cooked. Whatever you buy, fresh or frozen, it must smell deliciously fresh; if frozen, let thaw just enough at room temperature (or in a plastic bag in a basin of cold water) so that you can separate the filets.

If the filets are whole, meaning that the pair of filets from each side of the fish have not been cut in half down their central line, cut them in half lengthwise down this line. The milky side was the side next to the skin, score it — meaning, make very shallow cross-hatch lines on the diagonal and 1/4 inch apart. The filets are now ready for cooking.

AMOUNT TO BUY: 1 1/4 pounds should serve 3 people; or count on 3 filets, 8 to 9 by 1 1/2 inches in diameter and 1/4 inch thick, per person.

FILLETS DE SOLE AU BUERRE D'AMANDES
Sole in White Wine Sauce with Almond Butter. For 4 people.

The Almond Flavoring
1/2 cup almond flakes (whole almonds shaved thin)
2 Tb. shallots or scallions
6 Tb. soft butter (3/4 stick)
1/2 cup ground almonds (whole blanched almonds pulverized in an electric blender)
Basic Ingredients
Salt and white pepper
Drops of lemon juice
About 1 1/2 lbs. (12 pieces) sole filets, prepared as described in preceding paragraph.
1 additional Tb. minced shallots
1/2 cup dry white wine or dry white French vermouth
1/2 cup fish stock (French Chef Cookbook No. 101), or bottled clam juice
2 Tb. flour
1/2 cup heavy cream, more if needed.

THE ALMONDS. Spread the almond flakes on a baking sheet and set in upper middle level of a 350 degree oven, tossing several times, until very lightly browned — about 10 minutes. Remove, and reserve for final step. Meanwhile, cook the shallots or scallions in 2 tablespoons of the butter in a small saucepan for a moment just to soften, then beat in the ground almonds, the remaining 4 tablespoons of butter, and season to taste with salt, pepper, and drops of lemon juice.

PREPARING THE FISH FOR THE OVEN. Choose a baking and serving dish, flameproof if possible, about 12 by 9 inches in diameter if oval, and 2 inches deep. Smear with a tablespoon of butter. Season each filet lightly on each side with salt and pepper. Spread a teaspoon of the almond butter on the milky side of each filet, and fold in two end-to-end to enclose the butter. Reserve remaining almond butter for final step. Arrange the filets, slightly overlapping if necessary, in the baking dish. Sprinkle with the remaining shallots or scallions. Pour the wine or vermouth around the filets, and enough fish stock or clam juice almost to cover the fish. Lay a piece of buttered wax paper over the fish. (May be prepared ahead and refrigerated.)

BAKING, SAUCING, AND SERVING. (20 to 30 minutes in all). Oven at 350 degrees. About half an hour before you are ready to serve, bring just to simmer on top of the stove; set in lower middle of a preheated oven for 8 to 10 minutes. Fish is done when springy rather than squishy to the touch, and when it has turned from translucent to milky white — do not overcook. Remove from oven, place a cover over dish, and drain cooking liquid into a stainless or enameled 3-quart saucepan. While making sauce, leave wax paper on fish, and set on a cover; place in turned-off oven leaving door ajar, or over a pan of simmering water. Rapidly boil down the cooking liquid until only about 1/2 cup remains; drain fish again during this period, adding liquid to pan. Remove saucepan from heat, blend the flour in a small bowl with about 1 1/2 tablespoons of soft butter, beat into cooking liquid with a wire whip, and bring to the boil, stirring. Simmering the sauce, thin out with spoonful of cream: sauce should be just thick enough to coat a spoon nicely — meaning it will coat the fish filets nicely. Carefully correct seasoning, adding salt, pepper, and drops of lemon juice. Fold in the toasted almond flakes. Remove from heat and fold in the remaining almond butter. Drain fish again if necessary, spoon on the sauce, and serve immediately.

FILLETS DE SOLE, BONNE FEMME — Sole Filets on a Bed of Minced Mushrooms, White Wine Sauce. Instead of the almonds in the preceding recipe, use mushrooms as follows: Trim, wash, and dry 1/4 lb. of fresh mushrooms, and mince them (making about 1 cup); season with a tablespoon minced shallot or scallion, 3 tablespoons parsley, and a sprinkling of salt and pepper. Strew in the bottom of a buttered baking dish. Salt and pepper the fish filets, arrange them over the mushrooms, pour on the wine and fish stock or clam juice, and continue exactly as in the preceding recipe substituting 2 or more tablespoons plain butter for the almond butter to enrich the sauce.

FILLETS DE SOLE, DUGLÈRE — Sole Filets on a Bed of Fresh Tomatoes, White Wine Sauce. Proceed exactly as for Sole Bonne Femme, but substitute 1 cup of fresh tomato pulp

Police Probe Road Death

A man walking across Cabrillo Highway at Grove Street was struck and killed by a southbound car at about 10:20 p.m. Saturday, according to Half Moon Bay police.

Jose Ungert Freitas, 344 Grove St., Half Moon Bay, was dead on arrival at Moss Beach Rehabilitation Hospital.

He had been thrown and possibly dragged part of 103 feet from the point of impact, police found, and had been knocked out of his boots.

Driver of the car was Mrs. Eugenie Skarginsky, 56, of Pacific Grove, who said she was traveling at 40-45 miles an hour on the dark highway and didn't see the pedestrian until it was too late.

The county coroner's office did not call the death a suicide, although it had learned Freitas had left a stepbrother's home at about 9 p.m. saying he was going to kill himself. Freitas' wife Rosa told authorities he had said this before when upset over family problems.

Freitas was a nursery worker at Enrico Pastorino nursery on San Mateo Road east of Half Moon Bay. He had come to Half Moon Bay four years ago from his native Azores Islands.

Other survivors include two sons, Manuel and George of Half Moon Bay; a daughter, Mrs. Luci Silva of Half Moon Bay; four stepbrothers, Joe of Half Moon Bay and Emile, Manuel and Amaro of Peabody, Mass.; three sisters, Mrs. Fatima Lima, Mrs. Mary Late and Mrs. Angela Silva of Peabody; a sister, Miss Maria Natal Freitas of the Azores, and one granddaughter.

The Rosary will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow Dutra-Randleman Funeral Home in Half Moon Bay.

Funeral services will be from Dutra-Randleman at 9 a.m. Wednesday, with a funeral mass at 9:30 at Our Lady of the Pillar Catholic Church. Interment will be at Skyline Memorial Park.

10 Injured in Series of Collisions on Bayshore

Ten persons were injured in a series of collisions on Bayshore Freeway near Brisbane between 12:25 and 12:40 a.m. yesterday.

One man, Kwok Lau, 26, of Sunnyvale, was in the intensive car unit at Peninsula Hospital being treated for facial lacerations and back injuries. A Redwood City man was also critically injured.

The accident chain, resulting in 10 wrecked and damaged cars, was apparently caused by an unoccupied car abandoned in the southbound lane on Candlestick Causeway, belonging to Duncan Rogers, 404 Larch Ave., South San Francisco. Highway patrolmen are investigating who had been driving the car and how it happened to be there.

Sandra Briggs, 31, 125 Nevada St., Redwood City, ran into the abandoned car, which had been left with no lights on, and James Cronin, 22, Santa Cruz, ran into the Briggs car. Mrs.

Briggs was believed to have incurred a broken collarbone, while her husband, Sidney, was critically injured with facial lacerations, and head injuries. Cronin was treated for injuries to his right knee and for broken teeth. A passenger in his car, Anthony Bertuca, 24, Chico, broke his nose.

Five minutes later, Laszlo Sebian, 24, 1365 Broadway, Millbrae, saw the accident ahead and started to slow down. He was struck from the rear, however, by the car of Mark Borsatt, 19, 1605 Lassen Way, Burlingame. Both drivers incurred apparently minor injuries.

Then, Joseph Saureau, 35, San Francisco, also southbound, at about the same point, somehow lost control of his car and hit the center divider. He escaped injury.

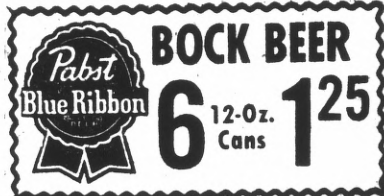

Ten minutes later, with the scene swarming with ambulances, tow trucks and patrol cars, five more cars were involved in a collision.

Martha Ziegler, 1052 Edgewood Road, Redwood City, saw the accident ahead of her and slowed down. James Mantia, 21, 1515 Valdez Way, Pacifica, slowed down behind her; Christine Zarri, 109 Picadilly Place, San Bruno, slowed down behind him; Shew Fong, 49 Sunnyvale, slowed down.

Man Jailed For Burglary

A 30-year-old man was captured by neighbors early today after he allegedly crawled through the apartment window of a 24-year-old blonde and attempted to rape her. He fled when the woman screamed and bit his thumb when he placed his hand over her mouth.

Booked at the county jail on charges of attempted rape and burglary was Douglas McArthur Wagner, 30, an airplane mechanic of 5 Nimitz Avenue, Redwood City.

Officers said Wagner was held for police by neighbors who chased and caught him shortly before 3 a.m.

Posada Case Nearing Jury

The murder trial of Edward W. Posada, accused of the bludgeoning slaying of Pellegrino J. Pellegrini last November 28 in San Mateo, resumed today before Superior Court Judge Frank Piombo in Redwood City.

Deputy District Attorney Steven C. Grier was giving the prosecution's rebuttal to the assertion of defense attorney James R. Torney Jr. that Posada was at work as an assistant dispatcher for United Air Lines at the time the prosecution contends Pellegrini was killed.

Coast Crash Hurts Woman

A 19-year-old Fremont woman suffered a fractured right leg and rib injuries last evening when a car in which she was riding was involved in a collision at Farallone and Eleventh Streets in Montara, the highway patrol reports.

Officer E. L. Geyer said the victim, Catherine E. Gallegos, was a passenger in a car driven by Frank J. Gilberti, 26, of Oakland, which collided with a car driven by Richard M. Hernandez, 29, of 755 Prairie Creek Drive, Pacifica, shortly after 6 p.m.

Ralph L. Rhodes Heads CAP 102

Ralph L. Rhodes of Hillsborough has been named commander of Pacifica Civil Air Patrol Cadet Squadron 102.

The appointment was made by CAP Group 20 in San Francisco. Rhodes succeeds First Lt. Thomas Hawkes of Pacifica.

Rhodes was the American Legion commander of Pacifica prior to moving to Hillsborough a few months ago and is familiar with various youth groups of Pacifica, including the Boy Scouts.

Pacifican, 47, Is Arrested

A 47-year-old Pacifica woman has been booked by San Bruno police and charged with petty theft from Sears' store at Tanforan Shopping Center of two pair of maternity pants, among other items. The woman is 5-foot-4 and weighs 165 pounds, according to the police.

Bike Safety Program, Rodeo

The California State Automobile Association has stated that over 30,000 bicycle accidents occur yearly in California.

In order to make the public aware of bicycle safety and the importance of proper bicycle riding and licensing, the City of Pacifica Safety Commission, Police Department, Park, Beach and Recreation Department, Kiwanis Club and Bicycle Club have joined together to sponsor a Bicycle Safety Program and Bike Rodeo.

The preliminary Bike Rodeo contests will be held at Vallemar, Pedro Valley, Sanchez, Linda Mar and Ortega Schools on Friday, April 28th, from 3:30-5:30 p.m., and Westview, Fairmont, Pacific Manor, and Sharp Park on Friday May 4th, from 3:30-5:30 p.m. Contestants will participate in a Bicycle Safety Inspection, a Bicycle Safety Test, and a series of skill tests including balance, obstacles, circling, braking, steering, turning and skill riding. Each participant will receive a Bicycle Identification Card and a reflector sticker for their bicycle.

Participants will be divided into four divisions according to grade: Division I — 1st and 2nd, Division II — 3rd and 4th, Division III — 5th and 6th and Division IV — 7th and 8th grades. Prizes will be awarded through 6th place in all Divisions. All participants completing the test will be eligible for a drawing for a Sting Ray Bicycle, one to be given away at the Southern Bike Rodeo Finals on Saturday, April 28, at the Linda Mar Shopping Center and one for the Northern Finals at the Pacific Manor Shopping Center, May 5. Both contests will be held from 10 until 2 p.m. All those competing in the local contests will be eligible for the Northern and Southern Finals, and two additional Divisions will be added: Division V — 9th through 12th grades and Division VI — adults. The Police Department will safety inspect and license bicycles at both the Northern and Southern Finals. Fee for the license is $1.

There will be a Bicycle Ride conducted by the Pacifica Club, "The Free Wheelers" and the P.B. & R. on April 28, to the Linda Mar Shopping Center, beginning at Vallemar School at 9 a.m., and picking up riders at Pedro Valley, Sanchez and Linda Mar Schools.

Favorite Sport

People often ask me why baseball is my favorite sport, and I often wonder about it myself . . . and after I clear all of the trite phrases out of my system (its sense of history, its leisurely attitude in a world gone mad, etc.).

I think that what it all really comes down to is that I like baseball because I am left-handed and because baseball is the only endeavor in our society which venerates left-handers. (Aside from an unjustifiable prejudice against lefty catchers).

Not even other sports do much for the southpaw. Golf courses are built to confound the portside swinger. Tennis looks upon lefties, with rare exceptions, as oddities. How many left-handed hotputters or javelin throwers have you ever seen? Left-handed boxers are almost invariably switched to the left-jab (right-hand) lead. Left-handed quarterbacks are made into cornerbacks. Frankie Albert is the only southpaw pro to ever "make it". Of the two left quarterbacks currently in the NFL, one (Bobby Douglass of Chicago) is considered the worst passer in pro football.

THE OTHER, Kenny Stabler of Oakland, continues to sit the bench despite sometimes brilliant performances. Occasionally an announcer might mention that Gail Goodrich is left-handed, or might recall that Bill Russell was, but that fact is never considered to be integral to their accomplishments in pro basketball. There are many left-handed shooting hockey players, including Bobby Hull, Phil Esposito and Derek Sanderson, but seldom is there anything made of it.

But baseball, on the other hand, (pun intended) looks on southpaws as colorful and cute, as great newspaper copy, lovable characters. Baseball players are even NAMED Lefty (Lefty Gomez, Lefty Grove, Lefty O'Doul, etc.), and sometimes baseball stadiums are designed to benefit their particular talents. The Japanese have been so impressed by our left-handed baseball players that it is almost mandatory, now, in Japanese professional baseball, to be at least a left-handed swinging batter.

We once did a research piece for a national publication in which we proved, mathematically, that, proportionately speaking, left-handers have won more batting crowns, pitching titles, etc., than righties.

BUT WHAT does the rest of society think of lefties? Just look in your nearest dictionary, for one example. You will find such definitions as DEVIOUS, CLUMSY, SINISTER, ILLEGITIMATE, AWKWARD, INEPT, UNDERHANDED, BACKHANDED, DUBIOUS, DOUBLE-EDGE.

Politically dangerous or radical people are called leftists or left-wingers. A person who is completely wrong is said to be "out in left field." A dubious compliment is called a "left-handed compliment." And have you ever tried to buy a pair of left-handed scissors? Or seen a road sign that said, "Keep left"? What is discarded food? Left-overs!

In medieval times left-handers were regarded as possible sorcerers or witches, because the devil himself was thought to be left-handed. It is a Muslim belief that the left hand is unclean.

So what happens is that Muslims use the left hand only for bodily functions and contact with impurities, while the right hand is reserved for social uses such as eating, shaking hands and saluting. Because other religions have looked upon southpaws as bad newsmen, we have people joining the RIGHT HANDS in marriage, oaths must be taken with the RIGHT HAND raised, holy men are called righteous, worthy assistant are called "right hand" men, and even Matthew was against us lefties when he said, "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth."

Man, in fact, is the only of nature's creatures who demonstrates a decided preference for one side or the other.

IF YOU'RE FROM anywhere near my era and left-handed, you'll probably remember your first grade teacher trying mightily to make you write your big block letters with your right hand, and sometimes even calling your parents in for conferences when you refused to knuckle under to rightism. It just wasn't socially or academically accepted to be left-handed in those days. When my parents asked my first grade teacher why I must be switched, she gave them a stern look and said, "It would be better for him."

After my experience with that teacher, I was 21 years old before I became absolutely convinced that I wouldn't contact social diseases just because I was left-handed.

As a result of such narrow thinking, only about one person in ten today is left-handed, even though artifacts left by primitive man seem to indicate the virtual equal use of right and left hands.

But if we may remind the righteous world, the ancient Greek word for left is Aristera, which also means "the best" and is the root word of aristocrat. Left on, baby, left on.

HOWARD COSSELL is to national sports telecasting what Barry Tompkins is to local sports telecasting. His botched-up version of the California scoring rules for boxing during the Ali-Norton fight was inexcusable for a "sports expert." Howard clearly didn't do his homework.

Not only were his facts screwed up, but so was his interpretation of the basic California scoring rules, which he continually ridiculed while holding them up to comparison with New York Rules.

What it all amounts to is that in California each round is scored by a point system, wherein the winner of the round receives at least five points, and the loser whatever the judges and referee think he deserves, all the way down to — theoretically — one point. Whoever gets the most points wins the fight. In New York, essentially, the winner of the round gets one point, the loser nothing. Winner of the most rounds wins the fight.

Under the latter system, a fighter can theoretically barely eke out an advantage in each of six rounds, be knocked down twice in a round in the other four rounds, and win the fight because he has won more rounds than his opponent.

The California system, obviously, is eminently more fair.

But not according to Howard, who continually rant-

All-Stars, OLM Remain In a Tie

OLM remained in a tie with the All Stars as they shook off the pressing Wildcats 40-34 at Jefferson in the Daly City High School Recreation League Monday. Herb Glischinski led OLM with 12 while Julius Yap paced the Wildcats with 15. The second game at Jeff saw the Snuffen Hackers launch a balanced scoring attack as they calmed the Wild Bunch 42-38. Doug Sheehan, Jim Molready and Paul Walsh sunk 12 each for the Hackers while Mike Rea led the Bunch with 12.

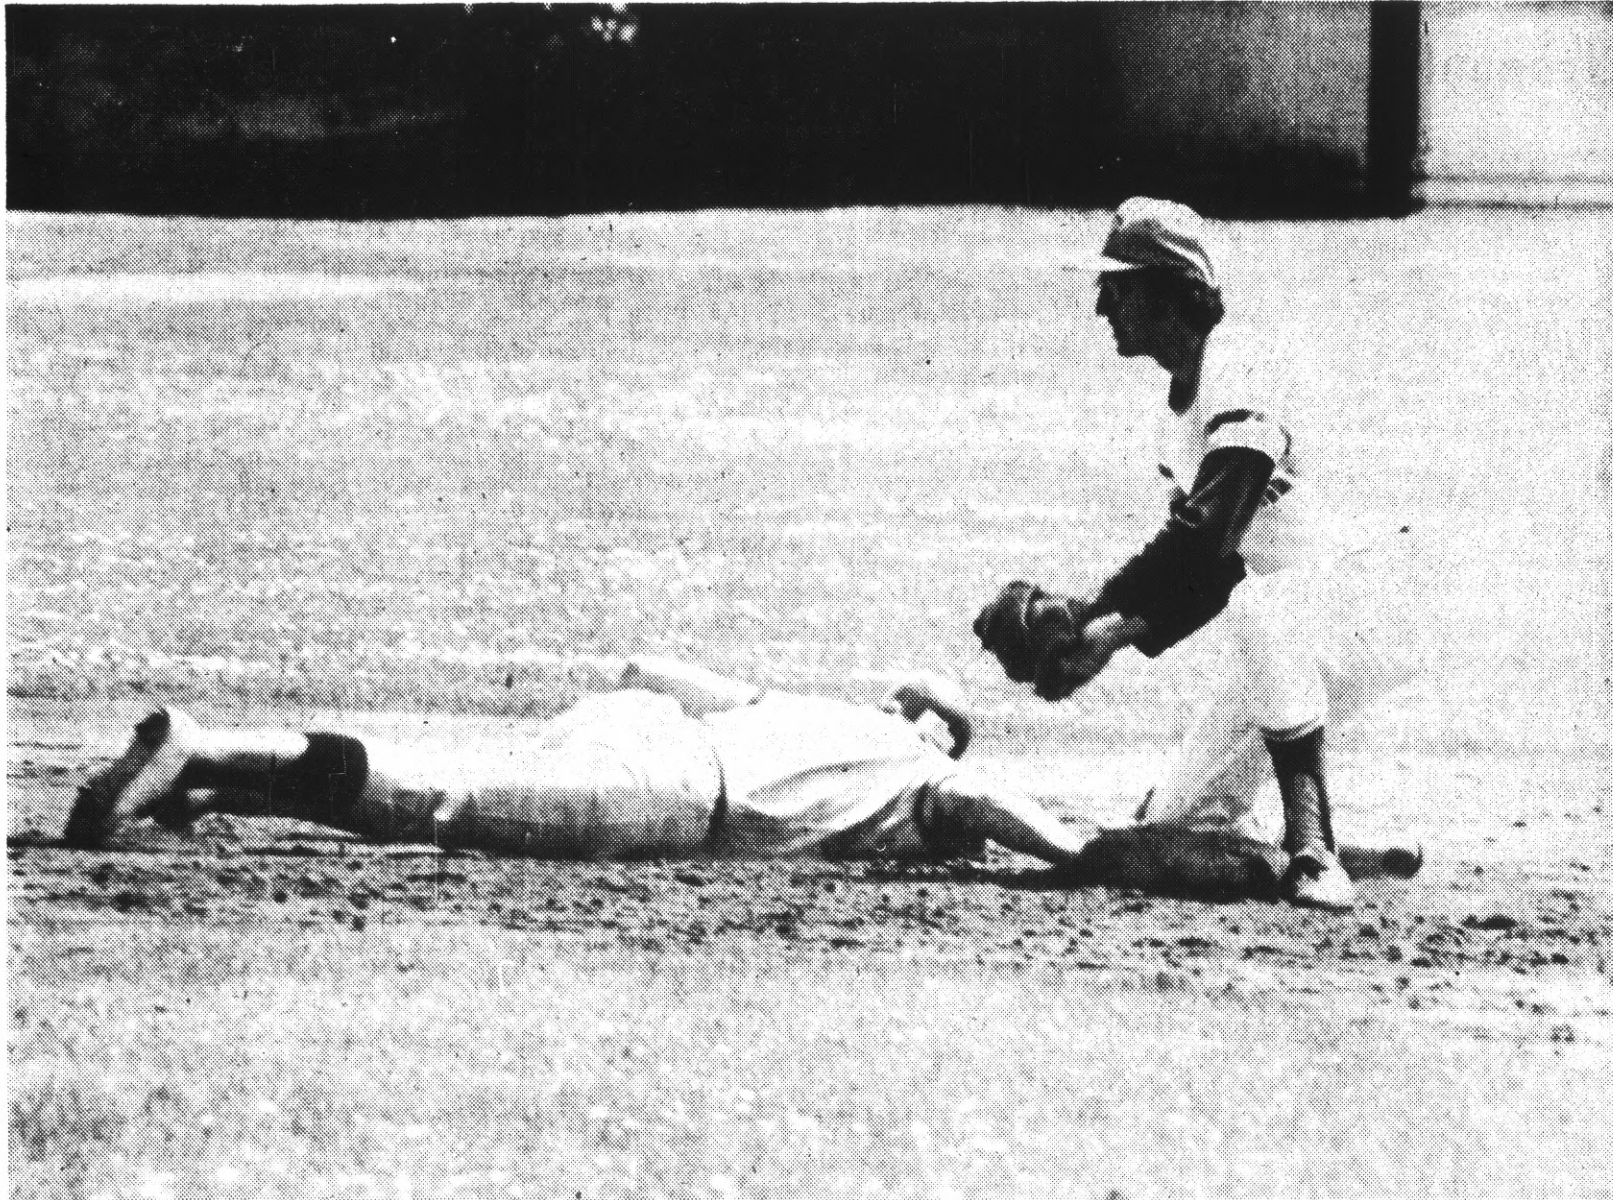

In action at the War Memorial, the All Stars, with 20 points each from Andre Wilder and Lou Gomez, buried Numero Uno 64-43. An early "Uno" 8 point lead was quickly erased by pressure shooting from Wilder. The score was tied at the half after which the Stars ran to their 21 point victory. Rich De-La Cruz and Ric Casali tossed in 12 apiece for "Uno".

The Gunners utilized a pressing defense and fast break offense to out-gun the Godfathers 82-45. Gunner Tim Rea topped all scorers with 19. Mike Simon and John Pacelli scored 12 each for the Godfathers.

The Jefferson Indians turned back the out-manned Bruins in the final contest, 69-50. Alex Cabagongan was high point man for the Indians with 16, while Jerry McNeil tossed in a game-high 20 for the Bruins.

Third Award to Sandburg Class

A fourth-grade class from Carl Sandburg Elementary School recently won a third prize for its entry in a Wildlife Poster Contest, sponsored by the San Francisco Zoological Society.

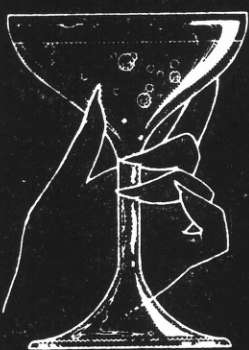

Teacher Mrs. Rainey had each student in Room 11 draw and then cut out a different bird or mammal. The class glued their favorites to a 15-foot paper mural. Their poster was selected from more than 600 entries by Judges Susan Verble Gantner and Georg Treichel.

For winning third place, the boys and girls will receive a ribbon, an illustrated zoo guidebook and a copy of the official National Wildlife Week poster with this year's slogan — "Discover Wildlife — It's too good to miss."

Scotty Campbell's Has Rare Art Collection

Scotty Campbell's is a popular dinner stop for theatergoers. If you wish to be served with "curtain time" in mind, just inform your waitress. There's the Fireplace Room, the Red Room and the Bonnie Dee — all offering a comfortable atmosphere. The menu suggests several seafood dishes, steaks, prime ribs of beef (a specialty) and chicken prepared most any way. Art objects from around the world embellish the interior of this prestige Redwood City restaurant. . . . Enrico Romano is known throughout the Coastside for his small-medium-large pizzas, which are specialties at his Romano's Italian restaurant, located in picturesque Rockaway Beach, Pacifica. Romano is recognized for both his friendly nature and his mouth-watering Italian sauces. . . . If you're headed for Nevada, with Reno or Lake Tahoe (South Shore) your destination, the only way to travel is through Park Avenue Tours. If you're interested in saving money (and who isn't!), a variety of generous bonus refunds are always available. Call the Park Avenue Tours office closest to you (four in the Bay Area) and ask about their special packages. Whether you go by car or by Greyhound Bus, happiness is "Entertainment the Nevada Way." And it's all possible at a savings to you.

MEET HORST DZIURA — The Hilton Inn, conveniently located at the International Airport, has become a popular Peninsula conference center handling meetings and dinners from six to 600. The enthusiasm and professionalism of the Hilton's experienced staff, headed by General Manager Horst Dziura, make every gathering a success. Among the many organizations hosted this week were the Hospital Council of Northern California, the Building Industry Council, American Cancer Society, Miss Pacifica Pageant, and Toastmaster Annual Speech Contest.

Jovanelo's For Business Meetings Or Pleasure

Banquet rooms are available for private parties at Jovanelo's restaurant, located in the Financial District of San Francisco. Whether your entertaining be for business or pleasure, you'll find excellent service and an outstanding menu of Italian foods, prepared Tuscan style. Open for both luncheon and dinner, with valet parking available. . . . The California Milk Advisory Board (representing the dairy farmers of the state) recently presented Frank Spenger Sr., a gentleman of 83, a plaque signifying the "Dairy Industry Award of Honor" for use of "real dairy products" in the food he serves at Spenger's Fish Grotto, which has been established in Berkeley since 1871. Spenger's is said to pour more Old Crow than any restaurant in California, and to be the largest user of Relska vodka. Heartiest congratulations to our Berkeley friend of many years. . . . Easter reservations are already pouring in at Martini's Steak Pit, Millbrae. Louella Cook says she expects a record number of diners. Specialties are steaks (many cuts) and lobster. Children's plates are also available. The restaurant will open earlier than usual on Easter Sunday, from 3 p.m.

Cinnamon Mill Coffee Shops Open Seven Days

Real smash Grand Opening plans are on the agenda at the Cinnamon Mill Coffee Shops, with two San Mateo locations (290 Baldwin Avenue and 1855 South Delaware). The Cinnamon Mill Coffee Shops are open seven days a week to serve you. . . . One of many reasons why the Iron Horse Restaurant (on Maiden Lane) is one of San Francisco's most favored is palatable cuisine served in a sophisticated atmosphere. This smart restaurant also offers a comfortable cocktail lounge for before and after-dinner sipping, with hors d'oeuvres during the cocktail hour. . . . Where does a restaurant owner head for a few days of rest and relaxation? If you're Michael Murphy, the personable Irish proprietor of the Galway Bay Inn, in Moss Beach, you don't tell. Mike and his wife, Jean, took their leave on Monday for a short vacation, with their destination remaining a secret. . . . Carlos Carvajal's Dance Spectrum opens the second program of its 1973 Spring Season, Thursday, April 19 at the Wabe Theater, Lone Mountain College. Performances are Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, through April 28, at 8:30 p.m.

Whiskey Hill Planning Annual After-Tax Party

Whiskey Hill's Dick Volante, is busy planning the club's annual after-tax shindig. Slated for Tuesday night, April 24, the celebration will include a free buffet dinner, live music, and dancing. Providing the sounds will be a band called Century, which has been a drawing card here on Monday and Tuesday nights. . . . If you're tired of rock sounds, drop by the Holiday Inn, South San Francisco. You'll find Patty & Mac's brand of music in the Lancer Lounge is a delightful change of pace. Although this musical team is up on current hits, they excel on old standards (especially the top tunes of the 50's). . . . The lounge of the popular Skylark restaurant is a bustling place. New owner John Gamber gets quite a workout during the evening cocktail hours (4:30 to 5:30 p.m.). Besides special "Happy Hour" prices, patrons can munch on a large selection of hors d'oeuvres. . . . No, the New Southern wasn't raided one recent week, although numerous policemen were on the premises. The "men in blue" were gathered for a retirement dinner honoring three fellow officers of the South San Francisco Police Department. . . . Tanforan Park's Garden Restaurants will not be open on Easter Sunday, is the latest word from top management here. They have decided to give the restaurants' employees a day off to spend with their families. With the entire Tanforan Center, in San Bruno, bustling with Easter Shoppers these past few days, you can believe that the employees need a day of rest. However, it's back to business as usual the following Monday. . . .

Bay Meadows Offers Quarter Horse Action

At Bay Meadows in San Mateo, Tuesday-through-Saturday evenings lack not for action, what with the Night Quarter Horse races in full swing. It's a thrill watching the world's fastest horses in nine action-packed races. Admission price is just $1.50 for any seat in the stands, whether it's the Turf Club or Grandstand. First race gets under way at 7:45 p.m. The various dining rooms and cocktail lounges serve from 6:30 p.m. . . . "We aim to please" is how the Villa Hotel in San Mateo feels about its guests, whether it's for lodging, dining in the 24-hour Villa Coffee House (note the new menu), or cocktails plus dancing to the Charlie Blackwell Trio in the Villa Lounge. Planning a party, wedding, anniversary, banquet? Let the Villa Hotel catering department plan the menu — and you take all the bows. A great place to enjoy breakfast after Easter Sunday services. . . . Desert lovers should try the "Sinful Rosa" featured at Saluto's in Burlingame. Rum flavored pound cake, soft ice cream, creamy chocolate, chopped nuts, and seasonal fresh fruits all done up in a gigantic glass. Not for calorie counters. . . . The Hokey Bear, five guys and a pretty gal, provide happy musical moments in the Golden Rooster Lounge at Rodeway Inn, South San Francisco.

Now Try Nick Gust's Moonraker

Pay a visit to Nick Gust's Moonraker restaurant, where an imaginative approach to Continental food is emphasized. Located on the shores of picturesque Pacifica at Rockaway Beach, this unusual restaurant features a nautical theme throughout, and you'll find the spirit of hospitality is evident in the unfailing courtesy of the staff. . . . Across the street and also overlooking the Pacific ocean is Nick's restaurant and lounge, which is a popular center for local gatherings, visiting Bay Area residents and travelers. Breakfast, lunch and dinner is featured, with service from 10 a.m. There is also a banquet facility for groups celebrating any kind of special function. Dancing to the Steve Romano Combo Wednesdays through Sundays for the young and young-in-heart. The highlight of Vince's Italian and Seafood restaurant in San Mateo is the seafood selection. In addition to the calamare, there is freshly broiled halibut, salmon, sea bass, swordfish and Mahi Mahi. Casserole dishes are many, plus California lobster, cioppino, and steamed clams. Just a few of the favorite Italian specialties are Baked Lasagne, Veal Scallopini and Vince's special with mushrooms. Located just next door is Vince's Fish Depot where you can order fresh seafood for preparing at home.

CSM Jazz Band Concert Scores

By ROBERT BURMISTER

Face it, the CSM Jazz Band gets it together! Their Spring Concert at the College's Little Theatre this weekend lets you hear that for sure in no uncertain terms.

Their sound is a big sound—five saxes, six trumpets, six trombones (!), and four rhythm (with help from other players when needed). As is almost universally the case today, their sound owes a lot to pioneering by Stan Kenton in the '50s—blocks of massive chordal sound moving in and out of each other. (Kenton is due to play at San Mateo High School's Band Day in May for those who don't know his work, although his style today is quite a bit more commercial than it was in the '50s.)

CSM Jazz Band director Fred Berry leaves his men very much alone during performance, a good clue as to how solidly he's built their working pattern, and a good clue as to just how talented these many musicians are. All these men are soloists. Berry steps in as conductor only in one or two touchy spots that might otherwise cause ensemble trouble.

There are only two spots really that could stand some refinement. One is transitions into and out of solos. The other is a little more variety in arrangement styles. Even though the band draws on arrangements by eleven different men, the writing styles from one to the other come off very much the same in the band's hands. It's solid, but it's awfully consistent.

The problem with leading into and out of solos is a little touchier. Right now most solo passages, though they're consistently well played, seem sort of slapped on rather than really building out of the music already playing. There are exceptions, to be sure. Electric pianist Dan Dillon did some choice work, pushing to the bounds of tonality, but never losing touch with what he'd started, making it an easy matter for the music to go back to the full band without any roughness. Guitarist Jeff Letchworth was good at this same thing.

One of the strongest solos was a short passage in Thad Jones' "Big Dipper" by trumpeter Johnny Serrano. He revved up like a flat out biker starting to move up the steep side of Mount McKinley. That number was marked, too, by a great tenor sax duet between Greg Yasinsky and Charlie Forsberg. Yasinsky 'was' funky and Forsberg just downright nasty; it was gorgeous.

Many other big solos were handled often by trumpeters Charlie Moresi, John Worley and Gary Battaglia, saxist Roy Passarella and drummer John Prosser. Rounding out the outstanding trumpet section was Rob Sac; also in the virtuoso sax section were Tom Abbott, lead alto and Dan Sullivan, baritone. The trombone sound was a marvel of strength; sharing pretty equally in that role were Mike Arnold, Mike Hudson, Kent Smith, Tom Mansfield, Doug Mier and Gary Richardson. Moving the rhythm section forward with fine electric bass was Doug Lunn.

Battle Flag For S.M. Legion

A weathered, bleached American flag, which flew above a lonely outpost will be lifted on Memorial Day above the San Mateo American Legion Post—the last American flag to be flown from the outpost on the Mekong Delta in Vietnam.

Post 82, at 130 South Boulevard, will fly the flag one day, then retire it to a memorial within, along with the black beret and letters of a wounded war veteran, William L. Alexander, son of one of its members, Edward Alexander.

Young Alexander wrote the post "I was one of those kids that charged out of this town to the service, just as the Korean War ended."

"You will find with this letter an American flag which I thought your post would like to have."

"It was one of the many that flew proudly throughout Vietnam, and the very last to fly over a small town called Rach Sai in the Mekong Delta."

"Hence you'll find it a weathered and sun-bleached flag—for it flew through both heat and storm, and mortar and rocket attack, and through two holocaust fires when it was thought that the small base might be lost."

"If it could talk," Alexander continued, "it could relate many things that I saw of it countrymen in the bitter river war back and forth across canal and ditch, paddies and reeds, and deep into the Ummih forest where even now men die in combat."

Wounded in a river battle, Alexander left a few days before the last two advisors departed. But the flag, when taken down, was sent on to him.

"I think it right that the flag should be returned here, so at least in spirit the ones who were never found could come home," he wrote.

Roos Atkins Elevates Five

Five appointments became effective this month at the 47-store apparel chain of Roos-Atkins. They include:

Jack Palmer, formerly the store manager of the Downtown San Mateo store to manager of Hillsdale. He replaces Dan Newell who resigned.

William Kunz, previously assistant manager of the El Cerrito Roos-Atkins, is now store manager.

Al Smith, formerly manager of El Cerrito to manager of the Foothill store.

Rocco Napolitano, formerly manager of the Foothill Roos-Atkins to assistant manager of the Downtown Fresno store.

RACE HORSES TOOK TO sea to win top honors in the large sailboat category of the decorated boat competition at recent opening day ceremonies marking the beginning of San Mateo County's yachting season. The event was co-sponsored by the Sequoia Yacht Club and the San Mateo County Convention and Visitors Bureau. This winning entry was decorated by Robert and Carla Foeht, Novato, members of Sequoia Yacht Club.

Hitchhiker Gets Ride to County Jail

Joel Zeger, 23, who told officers he is a Harvard student from Cambridge, Mass., was arrested yesterday afternoon for trespassing after he ran out between the runways at San Carlos Airport—ostensibly to hitchhike a ride to Massachusetts.

Sheriffs Deputies Joseph M. Horne and Phillip J. McIntyre and San Carlos Police Officer Bruce K. Potts reported that Zeger was finally taken into custody after he had been warned away once while standing in the grass between the runways and then after being spotted by a controller in the airport tower. One incoming aircraft was waved away and all takeoffs were halted until Zeger was taken into custody.

Frank Celestres, an attendant at the airport, reported when he asked Zeger to leave at 4:15 p.m. after seeing him between the runways, Zeger told him he was trying to catch a ride to Massachusetts. Approximately 25 minutes later the tower observed him at the southern end of the runways.

Zeger, who had no identification or draft card, was booked at County Jail for trespassing.

12 Windows Shattered

Vandals cruising through the Woodside and Portola Valley area in the south county early Tuesday morning escaped a cordon of police cars after hurling a dozen bricks through at least a dozen plate glass windows.

According to deputy sheriffs the incidents took place between 1:55 and 2:50 a.m., and some of the bricks crashed into bedrooms and some into living rooms. Residents reported the vandals were apparently in a Volkswagen.

John Melville, 63, of 611 La Mesa Drive, Ladera, said a $150 window was smashed, while Ted Meskett, 48, a San Francisco optician of 96 Hallbrook Avenue, Portola Valley, said a $60 window was broken. Donald Williams, 55, zone manager of a Millbrae firm, reported a $50 window was broken at his home at 190 Jane Drive, Woodside, and Bruce Michael, 61, of 550 Albion Way, Woodside, made no damage estimates.

Check Passer Sought in D.C.

Daly City police are seeking a young woman whom they claim has been victimizing stores in the Serramonte Shopping Center.

Monday night, she tried to buy a watch at Weissfield's Jewelry with a suspicious check, police allege. The clerk refused her. Then, minutes later, she managed to pass a stolen government check at Wolf's Jewelry, netting some $300 in cash.

Police describe her as 5'4", 120 pounds, brown hair and brown eyes.

San Carlos White Oaks School Plans Installation

A portable traffic signal will be installed by White Oaks school the week after Easter vacation as a temporary solution to the problem of getting children across the street during school hours.

San Carlos Schools Superintendent Nelson Burdett told Board members Wednesday night that the signal was decided on at a joint city-schools committee meeting.

But Trustee Art Pollock declared at Wednesday's meeting that he had studied the safety situation at White Oaks and found it "appalling."

"There's only one solution as I see it," he emphasized. "That is to block off the street during school hours."

Pollock stressed that there is a steady flow of traffic on White Oaks Way, "most of it traveling greater than the posted speed. And that street is very narrow."

He predicted that a tragedy could occur there someday that "would cause the district and city to do something immediately. The fact that something hasn't occurred so far is just luck."

Burdett indicated that city officials "hadn't seen the urgency for closing the street after all these years with the school campus divided. We have had to educate them (city officials) on our individualization of instruction program," he said.

Because of the individualized instruction at White Oaks, students cross the street from some classes to others almost continuously all day long. At present, teachers must leave classrooms to supervise the crossing of the children.

The primary reason for opposing the street closing is for fire safety. Burdett told trustees. He said residents adjacent to the affected area also may be opposed to closing the street.

But Pollock repeated his opinion that the temporary traffic signal will be inadequate. "I think we will be remiss in our duty if we do not go before the proper commissions and ask that action be taken."

Now hear this... The San Mateo Times popular annual Boating Edition casts off Saturday, April 28, in Weekend magazine, the leisure-time tabloid section read by 43,000 water-oriented (and affluent), San Mateo County families.

Average household income of $15,243 (highest in California), and 80 miles of coastline add up to disposable income and environment that totals 13,000 registered craft moored at 5 recognized yacht harbors.

These people earn more in their professions and spend more in their avocations — and the Pacific Ocean and San Francisco Bay make boating a natural outlet for their prolific spending power.

The Times annual sail and power boat editions will be read by families controlling over $665 million in income. If you have something to sell to these sailors, you should be in this edition.

Deadline is Tuesday, April 24.

Come aboard.

GIRL SCOUTS AND ADVISORS discuss the weekend's Huddart Park meet in which special tests for efficiency in various events were judged. The scouts set up camp Friday and started competitive events Saturday. They included firebuilding, knots and lashing, tents, backpacking, first aid, survival, conservation, emergency procedures, compass and map, tools, competition dinner, camp inspection and testing.

Korean Emigre Utilizes Abacus In New Job at U-C Bank in Menlo

Most bank tellers rely on an adding machine much like tight-rope walkers depend on a pole. In either case if you take away the attachment, everything is out of balance. But for Yung Ja Yu, a teller at United California Bank's office in Menlo Park, the ancient abacus is the best of all possible banking aids.

The charming Mrs. Yu, an emigre from Korea, finds the abacus is more reliable and faster than the electric machine. The abacus is always within reach at her window, ready to count change, compute transactions or perform other feats of numerical wizardry.

Yachting Season Opens on Marina

San Mateo county's yachting season got off to a colorful start Sunday under beautifully clear skies at the Redwood City Municipal Marina. The opening ceremonies, co-sponsored by the Sequoia Yacht Club and the San Mateo County Convention and Visitors Bureau, were highlighted by a decorated boat parade.

Theme for the boat decorations was "Discover San Mateo County," and the Convention Bureau awarded trophies to the winners in four categories.

The Sequoia Yacht Club Teens, headed by Laura Millward, 16, Portola Valley, won in the junior category, decorating their boat in the theme of San Mateo County's floral and agricultural industry.

Small sailboat winner Kathleen Morvillo, 6, daughter of the Vincent Morvillo Jr. of Redwood City, portrayed San Mateo County's Floral Fiesta with huge paper flowers covering the boat and hanging from the mast.

Vance Poppelka Jr., 12, son of the Vance Poppelka Sr. of Menlo Park, took top honors in the power boat division with his boat decorated to look like a harbor police craft. He was assisted by Bill Softky, 12, also of Menlo Park.

Best decorated large boat depicted racing in the county, decorated by Robert and Carla Pohn, members of Sequoia Yacht Club.

Crocker Bank Sees Air Travel Increase

Air travel within California should show a marked increase in 1973, continuing the recovery from a passenger decline which started in 1968 and hit bottom in 1970, said Crocker Bank.

Crocker Bank predicted that intra-state carriers will show a 10 per cent gain in 1973, moving 10.6 million passengers this year compared to 9.6 million in 1972 and 8.8 million in 1971.

Air carriers deriving their primary revenue from travel within California had shown substantial increases in passenger volume until 1968. While there had been an average annual increase of 19 per cent for the previous seven years, the rate of increase dipped to 13 per cent in 1968, then to 9.1 per cent the following year.

In 1970, for the first time in a decade, the number of passengers fell below the previous year's total. In that year, airlines served 8.5 million passengers, a 2 per cent drop from 1969, Crocker Bank said.

This trend was reversed in 1971, with a 2.9 per cent gain in intra-state passengers. The gain climbed to nine per cent in 1972 and Crocker expects it to rise to 10 per cent this year.

Crocker Bank attributed the decline of the late 1960s and early 1970s to the economic recession. Improved conditions should mean a continuing upward trend in the number of in-ent for counting money. She can correctly count many thousands of dollars in currency in seconds. Instead of counting bills singly, Mrs. Yu fans currency in one hand and counts it in multiples. She keeps track of the progress in her head.

"That is how I learned in Korea," she said, "the abacus and how to count money. Korea is entirely different than the U.S.," she added. "In Korea we posted everything by hand. I saw an advertisement for the bank in the newspaper, applied and took the exams and passed. The bank hired 43 of many who applied. We trained four weeks on transactions and two weeks on the abacus and how to count money. Then I was sent to a branch office and every year I had to take the exam."

Mrs. Yu is a graduate of Kun Gook University in Seoul, where she studied comparative literature. She met her husband while both were students. Yung Hoon Yu received his bachelor's degree in engineering from Seoul National Engineering School and obtained a master's at Utah State University.

The Yu family includes two children, a boy, Minsang Yu, two years, and Hawon Yu, a girl, six months old.

Jo Ellen Gundert, operations manager at the Menlo Park bank office, said Mrs. Yu "has never failed to balance perfectly since she's been here," but she admits that "Yung will sometimes use the adding machine to verify her balances from the abacus."

J. Scott Rambach, office manager, said Mrs. Yu is one of the best tellers he has encountered. "She's just an outstanding producer," Rambach said, "and all our customers really appreciate her personality. She enthralls people with her gregarious ways and with the abacus."

$88 Holdup In San Mateo

San Mateo's 7-11 all-night convenience grocery store at 678 Concar Drive, was held up again Monday night, shortly after 10. This time the robber escaped with $88 in cash.

An 18-year-old store clerk told Officer Richard Freeman, who investigated, that the gunman waited for one customer to leave, then pulled a large automatic pistol, pointed it at him and demanded all of the money from the cash register.

He repeated the command, saying, "I don't want to hurt you, just gimme all the money." The nervous clerk said he was fumbling in his effort to open the cash register and the robber opened it for him. He took all the currency and dumped it into a brown paper bag.

The gunman then opened a second cash register, took a swipe at the quarters and left. There was no currency in the second register. As the robber left, a silent alarm was sounded.

The man was described as about 22 to 24 years of age, five-foot, nine inches tall, weighing 150 pounds, very slender, having a short Afro hair style. He was wearing a brown cloth car coat, and blue bell bottom trousers, brown leather shoes.

Easter Treat

For the sixth year Tony Taormina will play the Easter Bunny on Easter Sunday. All are invited to visit with him at his residence, 1105 Ridgewood Drive, Millbrae. A sign is posted on the front of the house announcing the time of his arrival.

On previous occasions he has handed out candy and balloons to 100 children who arrived with their parents in front of his home. There is music and games and prizes; all so, the children can have fun and believe, as they may, that there really is an Easter Bunny, at least in Millbrae.

Mateo Theft

Theft of $335 in currency and checks from a "Mr. Tax of America" office located at 214 South B Street in San Mateo is under investigation today.

A tax clerk, Gary L. Stang, told Investigating Officers Kenneth Lindner and Lawrence Schork he left the funds in a desk drawer.

Boy, 13, Hurt On a Spike

Derik Scholten, a 13-year-old visitor to Portola Valley from Huntington Beach during the Easter vacation, escaped critical injury this week when he fell from the roof of a house and impaled himself on a metal spike on a gate.

According to deputy sheriffs, the youth had climbed to the roof of a home of Mrs. Catherine Rizzo at 365 Cervantes Road, Portola Valley to retrieve his model airplane. As he was climbing back down, however, he slipped and landed on the spike.

Attendants at Stanford Hospital reported this morning the spike penetrated his rib cage, but missed his lung. They reported his condition as satisfactory.
